May Leave Soon
A Valcarier report states that rumors are again flying around the camp that certain units will soon leave for overseas, and there are strong reasons to believe that it will not be long before the 132nd Battalion, C. E. F., embarks. This battalion, under Lieutenant Colonel Mercereau, is one of the best in Camp, and with a little more training of an advanced nature will be ready to take its place in the firing line. The men are an especially fine lot, and their physique has attracted the attention of inspecting officers.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts through the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Cure fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

France First
Carpentier, the famous French pugilist, was offered $100,000 for two fights in South America, and the promoters had secured permission for him to leave the army for three months. But Carpentier refused. "I fight for France now, he said, "and not for money."

Canada Owes Nearly $600,000,000
Canada's debt on June 30th last was about $594,000,000. Of the domain funded indebtedness $75,000,000 is payable in New York, $9,000,000 in Canada, $362,703,000 in London. Temporary loans total $148,073,000. Revenue for June totalled $17,600,000, an increase of $6,200,000 over June of last year. Customs revenue jumped by a little more than $4,000,000 or nearly sixty per cent.

Ways of Sweden
It is light all night in summer and dark in winter. Although drinking is common, one seldom sees a drunken man. Everybody trusts you, and you are expected to trust everybody. You take off your hat when you enter a shop and return the shopman's bow. A servant who brings you something says "So good." You say "Tack" (thanks). You get a bill every day at the hotel. This permits you to correct any mistakes at once. A barber will shave you for six cents, but you have to wash your own face and comb your own hair. Tips are everywhere given, but they are small. Ten or 25 cents is the ordinary tip to a cabman or porter. A lady always waits for a gentleman to speak instead of the reverse as in America. AS SEEN BY A TRAVELER

Cut Out Profanity
We are keen on enforcing some laws, and properly so, but what about the law in respect to profanity—the taking of the name of God and our Saviour in vain, especially by juveniles?
Profanity is alarmingly prevalent among that class in Newcastle. Merchants swear like our army in Flanders.

There is a law against that sort of thing, and the authorities are as much in duty bound to enforce it as they are the law against the sale of drink, tobacco to minors, or any of the other laws for the protection of society.
We are by no means a saint. We are as full of faults as an egg is full of meat, but we are thankful to be able to say that profanity is not one of our vices.
It is an idle habit—a habit that does not add anything to the stature of manhood.
It is a thoughtless habit, or a habit born of thoughtlessness.
Cut it out, especially if you are an adult, and thus set a good example to the boys, aye, and some girls too. This is a matter that too much serious meditation cannot be given to. Is there anything more disgusting or rather, we might say, sadder, than to hear young lads using profanity? Slang is bad enough for boys to use, aye, and to our sorrow, some girls, too, but profanity is a great deal worse. So we say, cut it out.

Instead of Paint
DON'T paint your pretty home this season, but use instead, Velvex Creosote Shingle Stains. By so doing, you can bring out all the beauty of the wood. And think of the preservative value. Velvex Shingle Stains contain Creosote, the greatest wood preservative known. This means prolonged protection against wind and weather. It therefore means economy.
Velvex Creosote Shingle Stains Half the Cost — Twice the Wear
Velvex Creosote Shingle Stains cost about half as much as paint. And they wear much better because they penetrate the wood. They do not evaporate or dry out and of course they cannot peel off. These stains come in any color you want. They are very easily applied. You ought to investigate them. We have the complete line and we know you will like them. Write us for a sample of wood stained with Velvex Creosote Shingle Stain.

KITCHENER'S THREE YEARS MINIMUM

Shortly after England declared war as an ally of France it was reported that Lord Kitchener had said that the war would probably last at least three years. After he was lost on the Hampshire it was reported that he had recently said that matters had so developed that he did not hesitate to say that the war would probably be over in less time than he had previously calculated. Recently Lloyd George who now holds the great Kitchener's position as civil leader of military affairs, announced that in a few months there would be momentous events which would probably end the war. More recently several very high authorities of several of the allied countries have pointed out that the advances on the western and Italian fronts, as important as they are, have their main importance, not in the positions, men and equipment captured, but in establishing the fact that the offensive has passed entirely into our hands making it necessary for the enemy to shift his forces at our will. Such authorities are unanimous in the opinion that these advances in the west will continue at slowly but steadily increasing speed until the spring and early summer of 1917. They also say that the brilliant advances of Russia will probably continue but will, also, probably lessen in speed and extend as Russia gets nearer and nearer the German border. The general consensus of opinion seems to indicate that by the early summer of 1917 Turkey and Bulgaria will no longer be troublesome enemies, Austria and Hungary will be driven well west of their middle line and Germany will be forced out of Belgium and France and struggling to defend her powerful border fortifications. Then, if Germany can still muster men for these greatly shortened lines, will come the deadliest part of the whole terrible conflagration. If possible, Germany will make the war even more terrible than at any time in the past. It is beyond human imagination to picture what that may mean.
