WEDDINGS

JOHNSTON-SOMERS A quiet wedding took place at Newcastle on Tuesday, August 16, when Mollie E. Somers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Somers of Halcomb, and Harry E. Johnstone, son of Mr. Mrs. Alexander Johnstone of Redbank were united in marriage by the Rev. S. W. Weaver.

OBITUARY

CAPT. THOS. H. PETERSON The death of Thos. H. Peterson took place at Seattle, Wash., on July 27th. He was a resident of Campbellton for several years. He was married in Newcastle forty-five years ago to Grace Jardine, daughter of Alexander Jardine, Renous, N.B., and spent several years of his life at Newcastle being Captain of the "Nelson" running between Chatham and Newcastle. He was born in Skein, Norway, May 3rd 1853. He leaves to mourn his loss, a widow and four sons, Herbert H. of St. John, N.B.; Harry L. Otto, Burton and Frank H. of Seattle.

JOHN A. LAWLOR Mr. J. R. Lawlor received a telegram on Saturday advising him of the death of his brother, John A. Lawlor at Eagle River, Wisconsin, on that date, August 12th. The telegram also stated that the funeral would be held on Monday. No particulars have, as yet, been received.

Deceased was a son of Mr. John Lawlor, late registrar of deeds and wills, and Mrs. Lawlor, of Newcastle. He is survived by three brothers: James C. and P. F., of Eagle River, Wisconsin, and J. R. of Newcastle; and three sisters, Mary Ann, of Newcastle, Mrs. Thos. Hayden, of Douglastown, and Rev. Sr. St. Alban, of the Cong. De-Notre Dame, Montreal.

MISS ADDIE CLAIRE HAINES On Thursday, Miss Addie Claire Haines died at the home of her sister, Mrs. S. Houghton, Moncton, after a tedious illness, lasting nearly a year. The deceased, who was 35 years of age, was born in Nelson, Northumberland Co. and had been teaching in the public schools of Saskatchewan about two years prior to her return to New Brunswick, a little over a year ago.

She leaves to mourn, one sister, Mrs. S. Houghton, of Moncton, Mrs. W. Morrell and Mrs. Wm. Craik of Newcastle are aunts of the deceased. The funeral was held Saturday afternoon at 2.30. Service at St. George's Church at 3 o'clock. Interment at Elmwood cemetery.

CHARLES MORRISON Charles Morrison, a native of Newcastle, passed away in Melrose, Mass., hospital Wednesday night August 3rd at midnight, aged 53 years, of Emolism of the heart. He had been a resident of Melrose for nearly 30 years, with the exception of about three years, when he resided in Philadelphia and Pittsburg, Pa., in which territory he followed his occupation as a travelling salesman and heating engineer.

Mr. Morrison was a member of St. John's lodge of Masons of Boston, the oldest Masonic lodge in America and Fidelity Lodge and High De Payen's Commandery of Melrose and Aleppo Temple, Mystic Shrine of Boston. He was also a past Exalted Ruler of Melrose Lodge of Elks and a life member.

The funeral services were held at his late residence 35 Laurel St., Melrose, Mass., on Saturday, August 6, with Knights Templar services with singing by the Masonic Quartet, who rendered "Crossing the Bar", "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere" and "Nearer My God to Thee". Burial was in Wyomng Cemetery, Melrose.

He leaves a widow, Margaret (Sandall) Morrison, formerly of St. John and son Charles Sandall Morrison also a brother, Howard F. of Boston and Melrose.

Mr. Morrison last visited Miramichi in 1907. Mr. Morrison's friends were legion and he was known to all of them as "Charlie."

WEDDINGS

JOHNSTON-SOMERS A quiet wedding took place at Newcastle on Tuesday, August 16, when Mollie E. Somers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Somers of Halcomb, and Harry E. Johnstone, son of Mr. Mrs. Alexander Johnstone of Redbank were united in marriage by the Rev. S. W. Weaver.

The bride was dressed in a gown of white silk with overlace and carried a bouquet of sweet peas.

Miss Somers graduated from the Acadia Conservatory of Music in 1920 in both normal and artist's courses. Mr. Johnstone joined the 132nd Bn. in 1915 and served overseas for three years. Since he has been in the west for a greater part of the time. Their many friends wish the bride and groom many years of happiness.

FERGUSON-JOHNSTON A very pretty wedding took place at the United Baptist church, Lytleton on Wednesday Aug. 10 at 5 p.m. when Martha Agatha, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Johnston of Halcomb was united in marriage to Arnold, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ferguson of Cassilis.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. S. Weaver in the presence of a large number of friends. The church was prettily decorated with flowers by the brides friends. The bride who was attired in a dress of white silk crepe de chene, and large hat of silk braid and tulle carried a shower bouquet of sweet peas, carnations and maiden hair fern. entered the church on the arm of her father to the strains of Lohengrins wedding march, rendered by Mrs. Irvin McAllister.

After the ceremony the bridal party and over one hundred guests repaired to the home of the bride where a dainty supper was served.

The presents were costly and numerous, consisting of checks, Silver, cut glass, Linen and furniture. The groom's gift to the bride being a Gold Wrist Watch. The happy couple left amid a shower of confetti for Chatham en-route to Prince Edward Island. The bride's travelling suit was navy blue serge, embroidered in contrasting shades.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson join in wishing them a long and Happy wedded life.

SOMERS-DOBSON A wedding of much interest was performed at four o'clock Thursday afternoon, August 11th, at the groom's home, Whitneyville, when Rev. S.W. Weaver united in marriage Miss Ethel Elizabeth Dobson, daughter of Mr. John Dobson of North Andover, Mass., and Clifford Somers, of Whitneyville. Miss Bessie Somers, sister of the groom, acted as bridesmaid while William Somers was best man.

The bride was becomingly gowned in pink georgette crepe with lace trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of pink sweet peas. The bridesmaid wore a gown of pale blue organdy with lace trimmings and carried a bouquet of white sweet peas. The ceremony took place under an archway of pink and white, from the centre of which a white bell was suspended by means of white satin ribbon. The house was artistically decorated with cut flowers and plants, the color scheme being pink and white. The lawn was also decorated and looked very pretty in the evening, when the chinese lanterns were lighted. Mrs. Addie McAllister, cousin of the groom, played the wedding march.

After the ceremony a delicious wedding supper was served. About sixty invited guests were present. A large number of presents, including cut glass, silver and linen, were received. The groom's present to the bride was a string of pearls, to the bridesmaid, a ring set with pearls and to the groomsmen a set of gold cuff links. The happy couple will reside in Whitneyville.
