In its course, it literally destroyed every kind of crop. Buildings were unroofed, and fences laid prostrate. The growing crops have vanished from the sight. Many respectable persons have informed us that the hail-stones were nearly of the size of a common heu's egg. To give some idea of its force we have been informed that pieces of window glass were driven across a faile eight feet in width, and remained fastened in a door. The window glass on the sides of buildings exposed to the storm, was all destroyed. In large fields of wheat—40 acres or more—not a vestige was left to tell what was growing there. The damage to the farmers in its course, is irreparable.—Yet all this terrible devastation was the work of a moment. PROSPECTUS

OF THE SECOND VOLUME OF THE CANADA FARMER. A Family Journal of Agriculture—Internal Improvement—Literature—Science-General Intelligence—published every Saturday, at R. Brewer, & Co.'s Establishment, Toronto, and is now offered at the exceeding low price of ONE DOLLAR per year.

THE FARMER was established to supply a want that has long been felt in the periodical Literature of Canada. On the one hand, a majority of the weekly publications devoted their exclusive attention to the politics of "party," a few to Religion and kindred topics, and on the other one "margine" poured out its other, one "magazine" poured out its monthly stores on the grand, inexhaustable, and vitally important subject of Canadian Agriculture. Although it is impossible to treat of public question without, in some sense, writing politics, yet the FARMER has not meddled with 'parties' nor will it hereafter less scrupulously avoid them. Its objects are the interesting, the useful, the necessary. As agriculture is the interest of first importance to the people of Canada, so is it awarded the first place and the chief attention in the columns of the Farmer. Emigration, Commercial regulations, Education, Legislative enactments, and all questions bearing on the industrial pursuits of the country come under impartial reviews.—

Short notices of useful books &c.; literary selections, entertaining, instructive and moral; the improvements and discoveries in Science and the useful arts; a dish for the ladies and the Scraps for the boys; the mar-kets at home and abroad, with the general news of the day, complete the bill of fare to which we invite the attention of every
