Turkish Treaty Must Be Carried Out.

Allies Will Use Force if Necessary --Supreme Council Discuss German Affairs -- British Navy had U Boats Muzzled in 1917 -- Chicago Strike Negotiations Failed-- King and Queen Attend Society Wedding.

WILL ENFORCE THREAT AT POINT OF BAYONET.

SAN REMO, April 21. The Supreme Council of the Allies is fully prepared to execute the Turkish Treaty by military force, if necessary. The Council accepted today a plan drawn for employment of Allies armies by Marshal Foch, Field Marshal Sir Henry Wilson, British Chief of Staff and General Badoglio, Italian Chief of Staff, who were present at the morning session.

GERMANY TO-DAY.

SAN REMO, April 21. Discussion of what shall be asked of Germany and how, what is asked shall be executed, will be discussed by the Supreme Council to-morrow. Tension between the British and French delegations on this subject has been considerable. The French are declared to feel deeply that they have been the greatest sufferers from Germany's omission in fulfilling her Treaty obligations, that Germany's retention of war material obliges France to remain armed, and that the reduction of coal deliveries keeps an important fraction of French industries idle. They say that Germany during the last nine months has indicated clearly to the French mind that she intends to do nothing she cannot be compelled to do, and that unless the Allies sharply warn her, Germany will default on the essential clauses of the Treaty counting upon escaping from further penalties or upon a revision of the Treaty greatly disadvantageous to the French. The British position is that although Germany has defaulted in several extremely important respects and that she must be required to fulfill her obligations she can be made to do so without further occupation of her territories and by severe economic restriction. British statements are understood to look askance on French aims and feel that leadership among the Allies is being disputed.

BRITISH GET THE CREDIT, ANYWAY.

WASHINGTON, April 21. Rear Admiral Sims' criticisms of the United States Navy's conduct of the war were based on the false assumption that the combatting of the German submarine campaign was the main object of the United States, Captain Pratt, former Assistant Chief of Operators, testified to-day before the Senate Investigating Commission. The British got the submarine situation under control in 1917, before the United States could have assisted, the witness declared, and held it to the end.

FOLLOWING HIS MASTER'S EXAMPLE.

STOCKHOLM, April 21. (Associated Press)—Wolfgang Kapp, leader of the recent uprising in Germany, has written to the Swedish Government asking permission to remain in Sweden as a political fugitive. The letter says he desires sending for his wife and daughter and to reside in some small country place and engage in scientific research. Kapp promises to obtain from political activity.

ROYALTY AT WEDDING.

LONDON, April 21. (Canadian Associated Press)—Queen Alexandra, Princess Victoria, Prince Albert and the Duke of Connaught, who had just arrived in London after spending the winter on the Continent, attended the wedding of Capt. Harold MacMillan and Lady Dorothy Cavendish to-day at St. Margaret's Westminster. A reception was afterwards held at Lansdowne House.

STRIKERS ARE STUBBORN.

CHICAGO, April 21. Striking railroad men in Chicago district refused to-day to vote on the question of returning to work. All efforts of a committee of strike leaders to obtain action failed.

HER ONLY HOPE.

BERLIN, April 21. Adolf Koessler, the new minister of Foreign Affairs, in an interview with Vorwaerts to-day declared that Germany must strictly fulfill the provisions of the Treaty of Versailles, for in that way only could she obtain revision of the Treaty.

WILL STAND BY POLICY.

LONDON, April 21. Austen Chamberlain, Chancellor of the Exchequer, announced in the House of Commons to-day that he intended to stand or fall by his original proposal to increase the Excise Profits Tax to sixty per cent. from the present forty per cent. rate. The Chancellor said, however, that if proposals subsequently were introduced for the taxation of war acquired wealth, the extra twenty per cent. would be re-mitted.

"FIVE THOUSAND."

Five Thousand more bottles of "Brick's Tasteless" Cod Liver Oil will arrive in a few days. The two thousand which arrived about two weeks ago is practically all sold. "Brick's Tasteless" speaks well for the medicinal qualities of "Brick's Tasteless." The only fault is it makes you eat, and food is very high at present. "Brick's Tasteless" is a most palatable preparation containing the active principles of the purest Cod Liver Oil with all its unequalled tonic alterative reconstructive properties—combined with Phosphorus in the form of the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites containing 1-100 gr. strychnine to each tablespoonful also, with the nutritious liquid extract of malt and the bronchial tonic and sedative fluid extract of wild cherry bark. Price $1.20 bottle; postage 20c. extra. For sale by DR. E. STAFFORD & SONS, Wholesale & Retail Druggists, St. John's, Newfoundland. Sole agents for Newfoundland. Write us for wholesale price.

Telegraphists' Tales.

A single telegraphist was working a lonely station in the Sudan. Finding the solitude getting on his nerves, he tried to think of some scheme for getting a shift. At last, in desperation, he wired to headquarters, "Please send relief at once, AAA Station surrounded by lions, wolves, and tigers." Back came the unfeeling reply, "Reference your report AAA. No wolves in the Sudan." Nothing daunted, the telegraphist answered, "Reference my previous report AAA. Please cancel wolves."

Some telegraphists attain a much greater speed in operating than others, and sometimes fail to allow for the slower working of their weaker brethren. One such man, at a station in the wild and woolly West of U.S.A., had a reputation for being a "flyer." He had an exceptionally long message of three thousand words to transmit to a small station situated about thirty miles away. The operator at the other station was a novice, and a bad "reader" into the bargain. The "flyer" just shoved his switch across, and began to send at a terrific speed, without giving any pauses to see how the receiving operator was progressing. Just as he reached the two thousand and nine hundred and ninety-ninth word, a dishevelled figure drew up outside the station, swung himself on his sweating horse, dashed into the instrument-room, and presented his revolver at the telegraphist's head, shouting: "If you don't go back to the beginning, you blighter, I'll blow your brains out!" It was the telegraphist from the other station!

Edward Morrison Gained 25 Pounds by Taking Tanlac

For Three Years He Suffered After Every Meal And Got Too Weak to Work—Is Back On Job.

"I had actually lost twenty-five pounds in weight and was too weak to hit a lick of work at the time I got hold of Tanlac, six months ago, but in a few weeks' time I had gained every ounce of my lost weight back and I have not missed a day from work since."

The above remarkable statement was made a few days ago by Edward Morrison, of 888 Barrington Street, Halifax—a well-known shipwright employed at the Halifax Dock Yards.

"For three years before I commenced taking Tanlac my stomach bothered me so I didn't know what it was to sit down and eat a single meal without suffering afterwards. My appetite was so extremely poor that I went for days at a time without wanting to even look at anything to eat, and when I did force down a little something, no matter how light, it always disagreed with me. My stomach burned like fire and I bloated up with gas until it nearly choked me. My stomach was sour all the time and often I became so nauseated I couldn't even keep down a glass of milk. I was badly constipated and had a mean taste in my mouth most of the time. I fell off twenty-five pounds in weight and got so weak I had to give up my job and quit work altogether. I went to a hospital and stayed there four weeks but when I came out I was as bad off as ever, in fact, my stomach was at its worst and I was in intense suffering day and night."

"Last September I made up my mind to give Tanlac a trial as I kept hearing so much about it. Well, I thought it might give me a little temporary relief, but it never once entered my mind that it would make a clean sweep of all my troubles and put me back on my feet feeling like a man made all over again. Why, in no time I had a fine appetite and was eating things I had not been able to touch for years. The indigestion and constipation left me completely and I haven't been bothered in any way whatever since. I now weigh as much as I did before my troubles started and I am feeling as fine as I ever did and I am working hard every day. I am in absolutely perfect health and when I say Tanlac will do the work I know what I'm talking about."

Tanlac is sold in St. John's by M. Connors, and by the leading Druggist in every town.—adv.
