—Tuesday's meeting of Court Forest Queen, A. O. F., held in Carling's block, was one of great interest. There were quite a number of the members present. The court has been organized just ten years, and the members decided by a unanimous vote to celebrate the anniversacy by a trip to Detroit on July 4.

—There is no truth in the report some time ago published that Mr. A. E. Hourd, of this city, is about to remove his family to Detroit, where he intended to live. Mr. Hourd has never had any such intention. He will continue in his manufacturing business. The correspondent who supplied the news must have been misinformed.

marriage of a London Traveler.

Monday afternoon a quiet little wedding took place at the residence of the bride's parents, No. 172 Victoria avenue north. The contracting parties were Miss Elisha Elliott, daughter of Mr. Simon Elliott, and Mr. Albert Edgar Haines, commercial traveler of London. Rev. James Murray, B.A., B.D., performed the ceremony, which was witnessed by the relatives and friends of the happy couple. Miss Dorothy Hall was bridesmaid and Mr. J. W. Bleakley acted as groomsman. After the ceremony the bridal party sat down to a tempting repast, after which Mr. and Mrs. Haines left for Detroit and other western points. The presents received by the young couple testified to the high esteem in which they are held by a large circle of friends.— [Hamilton Times.

Wedding at St. George's Church.

A very pleasant ceremony at St. George's Church London West, at 110'clock yesterday morning, united for life Miss Wimifred Danks, daughter of I. Danks, this city, to Frank Matthews, of Montreal. Rev. G. B. Sage tied the knot. The bridesmaids were Misses Ada and Ethel Danks, sisters of the bride, while Arthur Danks, her brother, was best man. A large and fashionable gathering witnessed the affair, and were united in extending congratulations to the happy young couple. Subsequently a charming bridal luncheon was partaken of at the residence of the bride's father, Richmond street. Mr. and Mrs. Matthews left on the 4:25 G. T. R. train for the east amid showers of rice, etc., in full accord with the tradition.

Lecture at St. Andrews.

The entertainment at St. Andrew's Church Tuesday nightopened with an organ recital by Mr. C. Wheeler, followed by the opening hymn, "Onward Christian Soldiers," by the whole congregation. Scripture reading and prayer was then given by Kev. J. A. Murray. A quartet by Misses Gilmour and Boon and Messrs. Mason and Marr, "Behold the Fields Are White," was beautifully rendered. An inspiring address by Rev. A. B. Winchester, of Berlin, who has worked in China, was the chief feature of the evening. He gave a brief account of his labors, with especial reference to the blot on Britain's name and fame by the opium trade. He said: "If the whole population of the solde were placed in procession svery fourth one would be a Chinese. The question is, are we as individuals putting forth our best efforts to send them the Gospel? Are we doing all we would have them do for us had our lot been cast in a land of heathen darkness and theirs in our favored country?" He closed with an appeal for more laborers. Mr. Winchester is an excellent speaker, earnest and unaffected. Mrs. Cooper sang a solo, "Who Will Send or Go," in her usual acceptable manner.
