BITTER FIGHT COMES TO AN END

Peace Patched Up in Hungarian Parliament.

REMARKABLE SCENE IN HOUSE

Deputies Wept With Joy When the Long-Drawn-Out Feud Was Terminated.

Budapest, March 10.—The Obstructionist members of the Hungarian Diet have given up their fight, and the business of Parliament will be permitted to proceed. The scene in the Lower House today, when the hatchet was at least temporarily buried, was extraordinary. To the surprise of the House, Herr Thaly, a member of the Kossuth party, urgently appealed to the Obstructionists not to further oppose the recruiting bill, partly because of the hardship such action would cause the army reserve men, and partly so that the Premier might be induced to abandon the proposals of the House to enact more stringent rules for the conduct of business of the House. Herr Thaly left the Opposition benches, proceeded to the Ministerial side of the House, and amid loud applause shook hands with Premier Tissza. Many of the deputies were so overjoyed at the termination of the long-drawn feud that they wept. The president of the House was so overcome with emotion that he suspended the sitting. On its resumption, Herr Ugron, for the Obstructionists, declared they would support the speedy adoption of the recruiting bill. Public opinion, he thought, would recognize that they had carried on the struggle for the use of the Hungarian tongue in the army, as long as possible, but that they had been compelled by failing strength to give up the fight.

The Premier then asked to forget that he had proposed enacting more stringent rules of procedure. Prolonged applause closed the scene. The sensational and totally unexpected action of the Opposition in giving up their fight has relieved an extremely uncomfortable, and even dangerous, national situation.

Today's proceedings are regarded as the first step toward a lasting peace and the restoration of the efficiency of the Hungarian Parliament. The Opposition might have compelled the dissolution of Parliament, but it is reported to have discovered that Premier Tissza was prepared with a popular programme, in which he appealed to the nation to save Parliament from anarchy, and to rotect the liberty of the constitution from clerical and reactionary intrigues.

GRADUATING EXERCISES AT ST. JOSEPH'S HOSPITAL LAST NIGHT

Nurses Receive Their Well-Earned Diplomas—Addresses by Bishop McEvay and Others.

Four young ladies graduated at St. Joseph's Hospital as trained nurses, last evening, the recipients of the medals and diplomas being Miss Margaret Kennedy, of Ottawa; Miss Mabel Allison, of Ingersoll; Miss Sophia Marshall, of Bayfield, and Miss Margaret Woolson, of this city.

A feature of the evening was the excellent addresss of Dr. H. A. McCallum, following the remarks of the mayor, and the address to the graduates by Right Rev. F. P. McEvay, Bishop of London. The bishop presided and the Rev. Father Stanley opened the meeting by stating the object of the gathering.

The room in which the nurses and the guests of the evening were assembled was beautifully decorated, and the class members were in uniform. Miss Osborne, a member of the nursing staff, delivered the valedictory address, in which she wished the departing members God-speed. Her words were well-chosen and eloquently given. Their three years of study, discipline and night-vigils had met with reward, and in their going out to combat disease, she advised them to show kindness, charity and self-control at all times.

Bishop McEvay, after congratulating the graduates, wished them all success, and gave them a few words of good advice and guidance. He referred
