NATIVE WINE JELLY Dissolve one package of Calf's-Foot or Lemon Jelly Powder in of a pint of boiling water and when cooling add 2 wineglasses sherry wine. This is very fine. Tempting the appetite of the invalid and tickling the palate of Pure Gold-Pure Foods-No Adulteration.

Ask your grocer, and insist. 201

She smiles-ah, so sadly! She could only one sin under heaven that a wonot forgive a man she loves - he may break nine of the commandments and she will cleave to him, child." so long as he will love her, and her

"A regular bad lot," continues Bob, moodily. "I hadn't got to go far before I found that out. The other I didn't know of, and I wouldn't have discovered but for meeting an old ing, and going for a governess or a school-fellow.

Paula looks up with a little gasp. "Go on," she says.

man about town, a young barrister; and he knew something about Sir Her- which seems to be the chief occupation rick-knew him by sight! It is quite of companions. No, Paula, my child, true-there is another woman he fooling with." Her head droops.

"He is a villain!" says honest Bob-"a right-down bad-hearted scoundrel!" "Bob!" pleadingly. 'Yes, that's not too strong for him. Why, Paula, he was riding about with the cottage and the land must be let, this other one only two days ago! My friend saw him." Paula is silent a moment. "I know it, Bob-he admitted it," she says in a low, tremulous voice. "He did, did he? I wish he had admitted it to me.'

"Bob, did you-did you find out who she was?" "No," he says, throwing down his "no, my friend didn't know, and I didn't trouble to inquire Why should 1? The fact her hand over his.

liked to have known. Is she-is she | May!" very beautiful?

A low, deep sigh. 'How he must love her!"

Bob kicks the fire-frons. laughs a strangely bitter laugh. That is good advice. Bob." she says. "but, like most good advice, it is dif-ticult to follow. Think!"—and she stretches out her clasped hands with a thing to do to fight it out with her. sudden, short gesture of despair—"I Put a bottle of smelling salts on the sudden, short gesture of despair—"I Put a bottle of smelling salts of think of him night and day. There is mantel-shelf in case she faints." not an hour when I am awake that I do not think of him. I can see his faec. hear his voice as plainly as if he were here at my side. It is shameful, un-maidenly, isn't it, Bob? But"-with a shudder-"I can't help it; I have fought against it, eh, so hard; But I cannot forget him-not yet, not yet; I shall in time. One forgets everything in time, they say; and I shall learn to think of him with a smile, perhaps-who knows? But that time seems a long wav oft-a very long way, indeed, Bob." "And-what did you say to him?" he asks, looking down at her with gentle pity and wonder. "Did you call him a scoundrel?-and tell him that if hadn't made me promise-I was a fool to give that promise-that I'd have broken every bone in his body?"

She laughs again wearily. "No." she says with a sigh. "We parted very good friends. Isn't that the right expression? Very good friends! Think of it, Bob! When only four days ago we were all in all to each other. No!" with a shudder. "I mean that he was all in all to me! That makes all the difference, doesn't it? We parted quite kindly. I think we shook hands
-yes, we did, and I wished him every happiness. Poor fellow-don't be angry looked so wretched. I support even the worst of men don't like being And-and-" suddenly throwing her head up to force back the tears that glisten in her beautiful dark eyes, "that's the end of it! Let there be no more talk between us, Bob! The end has come. From tonight I mean to drive—to force him out of my mind. I will think of him as the husband of that other beautiful girl, and I will not wear the willow any longer. Never let us mention his name again, Bob. He came like a dream-let him go like one. I shall wake some day and forget all about it. I will forget, and all shall go on as it was before; we will break our peace; we will be happy in our own way!" A groan that breaks from his lips startles her into silence, and she turns to look at him. HIs face, his clear, handsome, honest MAY PULL OUT OF face is pale and working with distress which is all the more marked for his ef-be as happy as in our old fashion be-forts to conceal it. "Bob." she says, laying her hand or his arm, her dark eyes fixed on his face with apprehension and concern, "what is it? There is something else!

He sits with his pipe in his hand, his gates have important business to transpead bowed, his brows knit. head bowed, his brows knit. "No, Paula; he couldn't; he saidwhat was perfectly true, and I knew it and American Leagues on one side and that the land was mortgaged in the the minor leagues on the other. The fetch the money lent on it, and that-

"Go on, do. Do you think I can't three men being dictators of 24 strong bear it?" she says, almost wildly. "That if we couldn't raise the money we should have to turn out."
Silence for a moment. Ah, it is bad indeed when sorrow will not allow of words. Those were the words. He said them

Teething Time means endless suffering for baby without

Menthol Worm Remover

It cases the pain—prevents the stomach from becoming upset—makes the bowels move regularly—and brings sound, refreshing sleep.

25c. a box—at all druggists. The Griffths & Macpherson Co., Ltd., Toronte, Con.

would be comical but for its awfuless, "what the devil are we to do, I don't know," and he laughs a curt lit-tle laugh. "One cannot farm without We've each of us a small income—it's not much; not enough to keep even this modest place up, with the land. We," he draws a long breath, ound the room and then like a mar refills his pipe. Paula nestles closer to him; she is too wise to utter the commonplace condolences, but she puts her hand in his nd presses it, and he understands her. "The worst of it," he says, presently, and with a grimace, "that Alice must She'll kick up a shine, as sure as eggs are eggs. She'll say that have muddled the money away, and -that sort of thing."

Paula flushes angrily. "Will she?" she says. "Then you sught to remind her that some portion of it has been muddled in keeping two idle girls."

"Nonsense!" he says, roughly. "It is not nonsense; it is simple, honnd how generous, and"-a little sob "how unselfish? You have gone about your old clothes and worked like a farm laborer, while we have played the have forgiven him all that; there is fine ladies with our new dresses, and said to be good at the game.

"At any rate, Paula," he says, with a grim smile, "you haven't had many fine dresses; don't talk nonsense, my "But there shall be an end of it," she goes on, thrusting back the hair from her forehead, "at least, so far as I am He laughs. "What do you mean to do, young in?" he says, half sadly. "Don't talk rubbish about earning your own livcompanion, because that wouldn't be Paula sighs. It is so true! "You'd box your pupils' ears before "He-this school-fellow of mine-is a the first half hour was over, and ut-if you could get a good situation to break in young horses, or teach fellows how to throw a fly—" She winces and he stops short. "I beg your pardon, but don't get any absurd notion of that cort into your head. that sort into your head. As I said, there's enough for us to live upon, but and-have you seen anything of the Palmers lately?" he breaks off, with affected carelessness.

Paula looks up at him quickly. her roman's wit reading his heart. "Oh, Bob, Bob," she says, "what will May say? He is silent for a moment and handsome face grows pale.

"I don't know," he replies, simply— "I-I shall know tomorrow Paula creeps closer to him and lays "Oh, Bob, how selfish one can be! I 'Quite, quite," she says, despairing- have never thought of your trouble, But—but somehow I should have and it must be as great as mine! Poor "Don't say any more." he says, er would give her to me, and yet—yet —well. Paula, you know what I mean, Love! Such men don't know what you have gone through the mill yourlove means," he says, scornfully. "Do self. And—and if you can bear it, I not think any more about him. Paula." ought to be able to, but it is awfully She looks straight before her, and hard and rough. I think you'd better Towe, Jackson, Mason, Macarthur, Tiergo to bed: I shall sit up and finish this pipe, and try and rehearse what I'm to say to Alice tomorrow. There's one thing"-with a smile-"it will be some-

And Paula bends over and kisses him and leaves him to fight his fight as she has fought hers.

[To be Continued.]

FOR SATURDAY

"we shall have to let it, Paula—the old place that—" He stops and looks London Football Teams Prac- His Record for the Season Shows Form Players at Worth Track ticing for Two Games—Better Turnouts Are Wanted.

> Rugby practices were held in Tecumare not turning out to practice, and a change in this respect is desired, if the team is to stand any show in the championship running. Mr. Frank
>
> [2:0914], Jeads in the number of new

76-2 and not 80-2. be down to practice this week. He is From Kingsmill, Peel, Brunton, Labatt, McNee, Hueston and Reid, the seniors should pick a very good back

A few of the juniors, elated by their successes lately, and encouraged by the showing at Hamilton, would like to have the two London teams come together in a friendly game. It might be a good idea to play off such a game on Thanksgiving Day, unless the O. R. F. U. rulings prevent A large crowd would, at any rate, patronize a game like this. Both Skinner and Macarthur, the new men in Saturday's match with Stratford, made good. Alexander is a game lad, but is rather light in weight. One of the heavier boys of the team ought to practice the place kick. Many points are thrown away because of inability to convert tries. Towe, at quarter, is a game youngster, but he is rather light for the class he has to play against. Hamilton cranks go wild over Isbister's kicking. Peel and Kingsmill are equally as good. The boys would feel a great deal more encouraged if some of the older heads-even one or two of the officials who are old-time players, would turn out and get into the game again. There is a great deal of new material on the senior team, and a few experienced players are absolutely necessary to keep everything in good order. The following seniors are requested to be down at practice tonight and tomorrow night: Meredith, Reid, Ryan, Bice, Crawford, McCallum, Scott, ven, H. Brown, Cal Brown, J. McNee Livingston, Kingsmill, Peel, Labatt. McMahen, Brunton and Smith.

board that was utilized for basebal scores be used to score the football I don't know—yes, my friend says horsely, his hand covering his face from the light. "After all, it—it is what I expected. It isn't likely her fath—it is all likelihood the suggestion will be followed out by the management. Art Reid converted ten out of twelve tries last night at practice. The following juniors are requested to be on hand tonight: Thomson, Reid, ney, Watson, Westman, McConechy,

A number of patrons of the requested that the large black

Alexander, McGregor, Kennedy, Rowlands, Carmichael, Phelps, Wilson, Whetter, Hopkins, Skinner, and any other of the boys who can possibly get Ewart Fields will be in the game next Saturday.

The Victorias intend to bring a much stronger team this time than they have yet played. So the London boys will have to hustle.

WAY OF BACKER IS A HARD ONE

bered on the fingers of one hand. of Gravesend, Brighton Beach or Sheeps- horse is naturally of no account. head Bay. They come to Morris Park, and by way of explanation it is learned short turns must not be held altogether son suggested to President Harry Pulthat certain horses cannot run down accountable for the inconsistent per- liam, of the National League. the hill at Morris Park. A short, formances which have been in vogue scratchy, striding horse is in his element down the steep pitch of the a fact that more outsiders have proved that the American League will stand take life easy, Bob, and mind our fields and crops, and dogs and horses, and fore this-this wild young man came to this affair of mine. Was it bad busi-which an elaborate programme had ness, Bob? Tell me!" and she draws been laid out by the committee of the Eastern League magnates. The delethe parting of ways between National best times, and that now it wouldn't minor leagues' claim that the National commission has interfered in their internal affairs. They resent the idea of thousand baseball players. FOOTBALL.

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION

HIGHEST SCORE IN YEARS. Toronto News: The score made by with a smile, because he thought that I could raise the money; but—but—and I didn't tell him that I couldn't," says since away back in the nineties, when poor Bob. "You see, I was too proud, the champion Osgoode Hall team defeated the team from the Forty-Eighth Forty-eighth was then a new team in the union, and the beating that it received put an end to its career as a Rugby team. This goes to show that it does not pay for a team to run up such a score against a new club, for it does not do it any good and it kills the team that the score is made against, as far as drawing a gate is concerned.

organizations, controlling nearly three

The way of the turf backer is not a good in all instances, and on every wind-up. Mr. Brush's action looks like There are so many "ifs kind of track. "A good horse will win happy one. There are so many "ifs and ands" in the business, so many "ups and downs" connected with it, anywhere, either up hill or down, rain York Club in refusing a meeting this that the names of successful specu- or shine." It is a poor lookout for a fall. lators on the turf can easily be num- racehorse when so many excuses have to be made in his defense, and the prob- merit, but in looking back to the meet-Take for example the horses which ability is that when such are needful ing of the national commission held at have been running over the flat courses to account for a poor performance, the This is true of the Jamacia track, Indianapolis merchant got his points, and-presto!-the form is all changed, and it is true of every track, and the for they are exactly what Ban John-for changes in form, and it is needful the winning path of racing is endowed

GOOD TIME IN PAPER CHASE.

Eclipse course, whereas the bold, long, victorious at Jamaica than at any for them, and Mr. Brush will have no striding animal who showed to such previous meeting throughout the sea-advantage on the Long Island flats is son, but for an explanation as to the at a discount over the Westchester why and wherefore the riders, and not that the National League will agree the horses, must be held occountable.

Next the backer comes with his They would tell you that the turns are One of the unpleasant features of the newly acquired knowledge as to hill too sharp to be negotiated with safety climbing and hill descending, and finds to themselves. They are willing to take was the failure of Manager McGraw himself confronted with the Jamaica the chances if they are in front and track. At Jamaica, the horses which could show form and win at West-chester are relegated to a back seat. With which the backer is confronted. Not because there are no hills to be He is in a great measure dependent negotiated, but as the talent—the men upon the initial speed of his selection versed in such matters—explain, be- and if a horse has no early speed he cause they cannot make the short has no earthly chance around the turns of the Metropolitan course, and, Jamaica turns, or of getting a good moreover, are unused to the false footing of a new track, such as obtains at Jamaica. Truly, the path of the intricate business, and it is a sure of 37 to 34. backer is a hard one, if we are to thing that any man possessed of genius believe all of these reasons assigned sufficient to guide him successfully in to have a compendium along as a guide to finding the probable winners.

There is one old adage which holds with brains sufficient to land him at the top of the tree in any occupation in which he may embark, ATHLETICS. The junior department of the Y. M.

GREATEST SIRE BIG LONG-SHOTS

a Total of Thirteen New 2:30 Trotters.

It is too early for a correct and comseh Park Monday and Tuesday even- plete tabulation of the year's new 2:30 ings, and they will be continued all trotters, but the present relative rating this week and next. The boys are get-ting into first-class condition for both great deal. The number of new standgames on Saturday, and will give a good ard performers for this year will probaccount of themselves, judging from ably fall short of last year's total, their showing in practice. A number and it seems doubtful if the leading of the players, particularly the seniors, sires of this year will equal in number est truth!" says Paula. "Oh, Bob, do you think I don't understand? Do you think I don't understand? Do you think I don't know how much you have sacrificed for us—what a father as sacrificed for us—what a father as Referee Max Yeates reported that Referee Max Yeates reported that the last of them but two in the 2:20 list. the Hamilton-Victoria game resulted the 2:20 list, four of them in the 2:15 list, and one of them in the 2:06 list, Brunton, a new senior half-back, will Including his reductions, he has seven new ones in his 2:20 list, seven new ones in his 2:10 list. Margrave, 2:151/2, also has nine ones, a greater number than any other sire ever put in the list in his fourteenth year. Parole, 2:16. He clearly leads all early speed sires of the year, having seven new standard performers to his credit, six of them trotters and all three years year, having lowered their records, givstandard time this season, ing the sons of any other sire of his age, and his daughters have added greatly to their former remarkable from melting away. showing as speed producers, Bobby Burns, 2:1934, is well up toward the top for the year, with eight leave behind them every season? Nonew performers and five reductions. The California-owned stallion, Nut- owners of the different plants. wood Wilkes, 2:161/2, leads the Pacific hold the same relation to the racing Coast group of sires for the year, with game that the "kitty" does to a poker seven new ones, two of them better game, And they eventually get all the than 2:20.

BRUSH MADE A GREAT MISTAKE

He Blundered in Matter of Post-Season Games.

Tim Murnane, in the Chicago Recordfigure in the game. As they were not next two games. members of the winning combination the series would mean nothing. Then all other leagues are busy at that or there will be a tie. If Argonauts II. saturday or there will be a tie. If Argonauts II. win and Torontos II. defeat 'Varsity win and Torontos II. defeat 'Varsity will be a three-cornered tie.

scattered about, and very little interest created by the games. On the other hand, the late fall series would see the army of players and their followers ready for the event of the season, with the men in shape, and the conditions perfect for a grand

Mr. Brush offers a plan that has real Cincinnati a month before the close of the season, one can see where the CARPETBALL. COURT BRIGHTON WON.

In an . A. O. F. carpetball match played last night, Court Brighton defeated Court Forest Queen by a score LACROSSE. BRANTFORD WON FINALS.

Hamilton, Ont., Oct. 25. - The final game in the junior series, C. L. A., score of 9 to 1. At half time the score C. A. had a paper chase last night. esting and was witnessed by a small pear a man who has a chance with the New York, Oct. 25. - Delegates rep- There were about a dozen hounds in crowd, comprised chiefly of lacrosse en-You are in trouble! Oh, Bob, how selfis and inconsidered and inconsidere

Greatly Bothered-Bookies Not Prospering.

Chicago, Oct. 24. - An epidemic of winning long shots bothered the "form players" at Worth last week. That is, much of them that have survived the awe-inspiring vagaries that the racing game has manifested during the fall meeting of the Chicago ridge course Winning favorites are getting to be about as scarce as full-dress suits in the Klondike. Notwithstanding this, however, the bookmakers claim they are not prospering to any marked degree. Every long-priced winner, they say, has following who have been anxiously ly manage to cash enough tickets to ones in his 2:15 list, and three new eat up all the favorite-burned lucre and then some, so they, too, are kep new | pretty busy wondering what next will happen.

by the Pancoast family representative, erally believe. Many of them are put in Chicago, and of late years few-have made any great amount of money, al though business has been heavy old and under. Also a two-year-old and enough. This year, particularly, a grea a three-year-old entering the list last many "coups" have been successfully engineered and the shrewdest of the ing Parole six three-year-olds and one odds layers have been caught in then two-vear-old which have performed in at one time or other. The expense Axtell is making his usual good show- to $1,000 per week, which in itself is a ng this year, while his sons are lead- big handicap, and it takes the sharp est kind of management and neverending vigilance to keep the bank roll

Then who gets all the money that the racetrack patrons unquestionably body but the racetrack association, money, in the same way

GREAT FIGHT IN

Magnate Only Now Realizes That In Only One of Four Districts Can the Winner Be Picked as Yet.

Toronto, Oct. 25.—The junior series of Herald: It is now evident that John the O. R. F. U. is providing a great T. Brush has come to realize his mis- race this season, and in only one distake in not playing the post-season trict at the present time can a winner series, and has resolved to stand for be definitely picked. In the eastern the games in the future. His offer to section Limestones have a clean record play the series next spring is absurd so far and with two games to play, a for many reasons. The old players victory in either game, wins the district. The champions play at Brockwill not be in shape for their best ville and at Kingston with Gananoque. work before the regular season, and They have beaten each team and are many of the new men would have to almost certain to capture one of the

On form Central Y. M. C. A. looks have the district won, but then form does not always win games. Hamilton II. now leads in section C. with Dundas a close second. These two ton, and a victory for the Tiger Cubs will give them the district, as their other game is with Brantford. There is a tie in the extreme western section between London and Petrolea. These two teams should each win their games next Saturday, and the deciding game will be played when Petrolea teams play next Saturday in Hamil-plays in London on Nov. 5. The standing of the districts is as JUNIOR O. R. F. U. STANDING.

Section A— Won	. LOSt.	pray
Limestones	1 0
Brockville	2 2
Gananoque	1 2
R. M. C. II	3
		To
Section B- Won		-,10
	Lost.	pray
Central Y. M. C. A	2 0
Argonauts II	1 1
Torontos II	1 1
Torontos II	r i
'Varsity III) 2
		To
Section C— Won Hamilton	Logt	nlax
Hemilton	. Dost.	pray
naminon	5 1
Dundas	2 1
Brantford	1 9
Guelph O A C
Guelph O. A. C	3
		To
Section D— Won. Petrolea	Lost.	play
Petrolea	2 1	Press
London	1
London	1
Sarnia	1 3
Ctuatfand

JIM JEFFRIES HAS NO FOE IN VIEW AT PRESENT

Having persistently and emphatically announced that he will never fight which was played at the cricket Jack Johnson or any other black fightgrounds here this afternoon between er, Champion Jeffries will undoubtedly Brantford and the Young Toror tos, re- have a long time to wait before he will sulted in victory for Brantford by a tackle a worthy opponent in the ring. Even among the heavyweight fighters was 4 to 1. The game was very inter- there does not at the present time apchampion. There is not a man in the resenting 24 minor leagues, comprising all, and the hares, W. Brock and C. thusiasts from Toronto and Brantford. game who could go through the heavy-the National Association of Profession-It is said that Jeffries has planned have been thinking only of myself, session today at the Hotel Victoria. While you—you said you were going up to London on business before—before this affair of mine. Was it had business before—before which are slower to London of the union, also Canada, this affair of mine. Was it had business before—before which are slower than the time of Frank Judd, a hound.

At Jamaica—Merry Lark, 3 to 1; Via the list said that Jeffries has planned a made the distance in 23 minutes, two ona, 6 to 1; Druid, 7 to 2; Little Em, 5 trip to New York and that he will start to 1; The Huguenot, 30 to 1; Sun Roy, east in the near future. The champion is very fond of the metropolis and he 13 cents per package, 2 packages 25 cents.

Shredded Whole Wheat Biscuit and Triscuit

THE NATURAL FOODS

BETTER THAN MEAT

See that your grocer supplies you at this price. THE NATURAL FOOD COMPANY, TORONTO

A GREAT PURCHASE OF Colored Wool

Very Much Under the Market Price. Toawaiting his advent, and who general- morrow's Buyers Will Receive the Benefit.

Blankets

ONE LOT SINGLE COLORED WOOL BLANKETS-The knights of the pencil have not Bound at both ends; full large size, choice of light and A remarkable showing is that made altogether such an easy thing of it these days, as the unsophisticated gender dark gray, brown and blue. We divide this purchase in out of business every season right here two lots and make the prices—for tomorrow, 62½c each and 87½c each. at one time or other. The expense of the average book will come pretty close All White Wool Blankets. $2.38 Pair.

We are pleased to be able to announce the arrival of two cases more of All Pure White Wool Blankets to sell at They the former price of $2.38 pair. Positively this is the last announcement this season at this bargain price, as they cannot again be bought under $3.00.

Full double-bed size, Pure White Wool Canadian Blankets, thoroughly scoured and shrunk, soft and fluffy. Worth $3.00, two cases only

To Sell at $2.38 Pair.

Comforter Sale, $1.48. One dozen only reversible

Comforters, full double-bed size, covered with art cambrie, thickly filled with white cotton batting. On sale to $1.48

FOR THE CLOSEST ESTIMATES OF THE TOTAL VOTE TO BE POLLED AT

THE DOMINION ELECTIONS, ON NOVEMBER 3RD, 1904 Will be paid by THE CALCULE COMPANY, 9 Toronto St., Toronto, CERTIFICATE $3,250.00 has been deposited with The Trusts and Guarantee Company, Limited, 14 King Street West, Toronto. The money will remain in the Trusts Company's hands and payment will be made by them for the best estimates when the official figures of the total vote polled in the General Elections are issued by the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery for Canada.

THE TRUSTS NO GUARANTEE CO., LIMITED. Figure it Out for Yourself. The following statistics may help some:— In the General Elections of 1887 there were 666.539 votes polled throughout the Dominion; in 1891 there were 720.094, an increase of eight per cent, over the figures for 1887. In 1896 there were 835.600, an increase of sixteen per cent, over 1891; in 1900 there were 952.496 votes polled, an increase of fourteen per cent, over 1891 was 4,833,239; for 1901 was 5,371,051.

How many Votes will be Polled in 1904 SEND ONE DOLLARS You have four opportunities to earn $2,500.00 for every dollar you send with your estimates—and it your estimates are received before noon of October 31st, you have an opportunity to earn an extra $250.00, making $2,750.00 in one prize.

$250,00 for the best estimate received up to noon of October 17th. $250.00 for the best estimate received between Oct. 17th and noon of Oct. 24th. $250.00 for the best estimate received between Oct. 24th and noon of Oct. 31st. $2,500.00 for the best estimate of the total number of votes to be polled. This estimate to be mailed to the Trusts Co. before midnight of Nov. 3rd.

1.060.000, 1.063.000, 1.071.000, or any set of four figures you think likely, and if one of your figures is nearest to the official return you will receive the money. If you want an own, and mail i ment send postal card or THE TRUSTS 2c. postage stamp, for reply, with remit-AND CUARANTEE COMPANY. ENGLOSED HEREWITH. S. LIMITED. I ESTIMATE THAT THE TOTAL VOTE POLLED AT THE GENERAL ELECTIONS WILL BE

Write one of your estimates on each of above lines

Dr. Strong

For one dollar you may estimate that the total vote polled will be 1,050,000.

The Calcule Company 9 Toronto Street, Toronto.

will make his home there during the Sweet Marie According to his friends he is bent on Snyder McGregor starting in some business in New York, and upon his arrival here he will begin negotiations to open up a new hotel of some kind, so that he will have some business interests to occupy his

GREAT HORSES DID

NOT LOWER RECORD Two great horses failed in attempts Nathan Strauss to break records at Memphis yester-day. Lou Dillon trotted against the record of 2:01%, unpaced, while Prince Alert went for the pacing record of 159%. The summaries:
Free-for-all, trotters, purse $1,000; 2 in 3:
Time by quarters, 2:02%, 2:03%, 2:05%.

Prince Alert, to beat 1:59%, pacing—
Time by quarters, 2:9½, 2:01%, Lou Dillon, to beat 2:01%, trotting—
Time by quarters, 30, 1:00%, 1:30%, 2:02%.

Time-2:14¼, 2:13¾. Emerald stakes, 2:06 pace, purse $2,000;

2:17 trot, purse $1,000; 2 in 3: