FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

OFFERING WAS SMALL

Today was another slack time on the London market. The roads are in a very bad condition, and it is almost impossible to draw a heavy load over them. As a result little of anything was offered for sale. The few farmers who did venture out were repaid by the increased prices. Only three loads of hay were offered, and of these two brought yesterday's top price of 1, each, $2 50 horsehair, per lb, 30c; tal-$14. while the third set another mark low, per lb, 5c to 64c. $14, while the third set another mark low, per lb, 5c to 61/20 by bringing $14 50.
