WORKING GIRL'S EXPERIENCE

Read how She Found Help in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Arnprior, Ontario.—"I must write and tell you my experience with your medicine. I was working at the factory for three years and became so run-down that I used to take weak spells and would be at home at least one day each week. I was treated by the doctors for anemia, but it didn't seem to do me any good. I was told to take a rest, but was unable to, and kept on getting worse. I was troubled mostly with my periods. I would sometimes pass three months, and when it came it would last around two weeks, and I would have such pains at times in my right side that I could hardly walk. I am only 19 years of age and weigh 118 pounds now, and before taking the Vegetable Compound I was only 108 pounds. I was sickly for two years and some of my friends told me about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and when I had taken a bottle of it I felt a change. My mother has been taking it for a different ailment and has found it very satisfactory. I am willing to tell friends about the medicine and to answer letters asking about it."—Miss HAZEL BERNDT, Box 700, Arnprior, Ontario.

A day out each week shows in the pay envelope. If you are troubled with some weakness, indicated by a run-down condition, tired feelings, pains and irregularity, let Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound help you.

NAGEL HAS BIG ROLE IN "THE REJECTED WOMAN"

Conrad Nagel who is co-starred with Alma Rubens in "The Rejected Woman" will be seen at Loew's Theatre when this distinctive feature opens a three days' engagement in that house beginning Monday next. Nagel is taking the position of foremost leading man in the American films. His following is now numbered in the millions. Mr. Nagel did wonderful work in the recent productions of "Name the Man" and in "Three Weeks," and now in "The Rejected Woman" he has a role which gives him acting opportunities never before afforded him, with the result that his ranking in the world of cinema actors is undisputed.

Conrad Nagel is a man of great versatility. He was born in Keokuk, Iowa, and showed such ability at drawing that he decided to study for architecture and entered Highland Park College, Des Moines. However, a fine voice inherited from his mother and a taste for music inherited from his father, who was a noted pianist and composer, soon put him into college theatricals.

After graduation there was never much doubt as to Nagel's future. He spent one season with the Redpath Lyceum Bureau as a reader and took leading roles in the Princess Stock Company in Des Moines. From then on his services as an actor were in constant demand. He appeared on the New York stage in "The Natural Law," which was followed by his memorable portrayal of Youth in "Experience."

Among the pictures in which Nagel has appeared are "Little Women," "The Lion and the Mouse," with Alice Joyce, "Red Head," in which he played opposite Alice Brady, and in Marshall Neilan's Russian drama, "The Rendezvous."

DUMBELLS IN 'ACE HIGH' AT GRAND FAIR WEEK

Opening of Popular Playhouse Monday Brings Back London Favorites.

Canada's foremost theatrical organization, the Dumbells, will be seen at their unequalled best when they offer their latest revue, "Ace High," at the Grand Opera House, commencing Monday and remaining for the entire Fair Week.

All the stars of the old soldier shows have been gathered under the "Red" Newman, who, with "Jock" Holland, has returned to the fold of the Dumbells and who will be seen in their sixth annual revue, "Ace High," at the Grand next week, beginning Monday.

Dumbells' banner this season.

The company is still headed by Ross Hamilton and Al Plunkett, and now includes "Red" Newman, Arthur Holland, Stan Bennett, Pat Rafferty, Ben Allen, Morley Plunkett, and a host of other popular entertainers, together with the genial Captain Plunkett and the best orchestra ever assembled in Canada.

The new revue gets its title from the opening scene, which depicts a battle in the air and a crashing plane. The whole show is designed to have all the speed, action and sheer beauty of a Sopwith scout in full flight.

Captain Plunkett has just returned from England and France, where he secured a wealth of material, songs and sketches for his sixth annual Canadian revue.

"Ace High" will be presented all next week, with the customary Wednesday and Saturday matinees. Seats are now on sale. Be sure and secure yours early.

ABANDONED CAR.

A abandoned motor car, which police believe had been stolen, was found on the Pipe Line road Thursday afternoon and taken to the local police station after it had remained on the road siding for more than two days.

The car bears license number 128-699. It is in excellent condition

'TEN COMMANDMENTS' IS FAMOUS STORY

Coming to Grand Direct From Massey Hall Engagement in Toronto.

Cecil B. De Mille's superb dramatic spectacle, which last season won the enthusiastic approval of New York and London, will be presented at the Grand Opera House by Adolph Zukor and Jesse L. Lasky for a three-day engagement beginning Thursday evening, Sept. 18, with matinees on Friday and Saturday. The picture is being shown this season only in regular theatres by a limited number of companies, each carrying its own orchestra and technical staff.

"The Ten Commandments" brings into sharp juxtaposition the gorgeous pomp and pageantry of ancient Egypt at the time of the exodus, and the complex civilization of the present day. The first part of the picture is a superb revelation of the pilgrimage of the Children of Israel from the land of the Pharaohs, the pursuit by the charioteers of the enraged Raameses; their safe passage through the divided waters of the Red Sea, and their pagan worship of the golden calf, whilst Moses, on the heights of Sinai, receives from Jehovah the code of laws for the righteous government of mankind, in the modern story, which forms the second part of the production, the chaos of present-day life and thought in America is set forth in an equally impressive and, at times, startling fashion. The love story involving one who scoffs at and one who obeys the laws of the Decalogue, and the adorable woman, who is the heart's desire of both, is thrilling in its epi-isodes and marvelously human in appeal and message.

The principal roles in the Biblical part of the picture are played by Theodore Roberts, Charles De Rossette Taylor, James Neill, Law Butt, Julia Faye and Clarence B. Ton. The characters in the modern story are acted by Leatrice Joy, La Roque, Richard Dix, Nita Naldi, the Chapman, Robert Edeson, Agnes Ayres. A special musical score arranged by Dr. Hugo Riesenfeld will be played by an orchestra of twenty men. It comes here direct from Massey Hall, Toronto. Orders, now with remittance to Manager J. R. Minihnick.
