Strike Averted

CHICAGO, Aug. 13.—The critical point in the dispute between the officials of the street railway lines of Chicago and the ten thousand employees was passed yesterday. By the offer of a maximum scale of thirty cents an hour to be paid by August 1, 1911, which was made by President John M. Roach, of the North and West side lines, and the prompt acceptance of the same by President Wm. Quillen, of the North and West side carmen's union, all possibility of a strike appears to be over.

Lukewarm Enthusiasm.
NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—A mild audience of 300 applauded faintly last night when Emma Goldman concluded a protest against police interference in New York and a review of the recent uprisings in Spain at an East Side anarchist meeting here. "I warn you workmen of America that some day you will have to do as your brothers in Spain are doing," she said. "Some day you will be made to realize that the laws are not made by you and that you need not obey them. If you say 'we will be good—we will obey,' you will get the kicks you deserve."

Missus Big Hoard.
PITTSBURGH, Aug. 13.—By actual bank account at the Farmers' National bank here yesterday, it was found that Peter Leibauch, the aged German hermit, who was arrested for his queer actions, had hoarded in his shanty home in small change $13,168, not including six bags of uncounted coins or bank deposits in eight north side savings institutions. It is thought that before the search is ended, Leibauch's fortune will total over $20,000. Leibauch has posted as a destitute chieftain upon the bounty of citizens of the north side. The old man eked out a miserable existence by selling herbs and mint to saloon keepers who in turn party fed him.

Drawing for Flathead Lands.
COEUR D'ALENE, Idaho, Aug. 13.—Two thousand names were drawn yesterday for the lands in the Flathead Indian reservation, and Jos. Furay, of Warsaw, Indiana, was the winner of lucky number one. The first woman to win was Elizabeth McLean, of Missoula, Mont., who stated in her application that she was 70 years old.

Chief Kidnapper Arrested.
AMOI, Aug. 13.—The operations of a band of kidnapers have been stopped by the arrest of its chief member. Their method was to frighten children from 8 to 12 years old by threats of death if they should make any outcry, and send them on board outgoing steamers. Accomplices in other parts of the country. The culprit apprehended is a city constable. He has been sentenced to death by strangulation and is now in the execution box.

Canadian Route Scores.
MONTREAL, Aug. 13.—Two English mails delivered at the Montreal post office via Canadian lines within a week makes a new record. Last Thursday night the mails which left Liverpool at 6 on the previous Friday by the Empress of Britain were received at the local post office on the morning of the 13th. The Victorian of the Allan line, got here at 9:30 by train from Banff. The Victorian left Liverpool at 6 o'clock last Friday evening, so that a letter posted in London at noon last Friday is here tonight, and will be delivered tomorrow. The Toronto and Western Ontario mails were sorted in time to reach connections this evening. The New York steamer which left at the same time has not yet been sighted off Sandy Hook.

Sovereign Great Priory.
HALIFAX, N. S., Aug. 13.—At the twenty-sixth annual assembly of the Sovereign Great Priory of Canada, Knights Templar, held at Truro, officers were elected as follows: Supreme grand master, W. E. Ryrie, Toronto; grand constable, John W. Logan, Truro; grand marshal, Allen Austin, Montreal; grand chancellor, W. H. Whitty, Montreal; grand treasurer, C. P. Massell, Toronto. The members of the Sovereign Great Priory came to Halifax today, and were entertained by the Nova Scotia preceptory of Halifax. Among those in attendance at the meeting in Truro, were Senator Ellis St. John, Hon. J. K. Korn-speker of the senate; Governor Fraser of Nova Scotia; D. L. Carley, of Toronto; past supreme grand master, Judge McWatt, of Sarnia, visiting.

Charles Taylor, a carpenter's assistant, has received serious if not fatal injuries at Phoenix, while working on a new train for the railroading. Waste from the Granby mines. Owing to too great strain being put upon it, a crane overturned and fell to the ground, eight feet, taking Taylor with it. His right leg and left arm were broken, and he received in addition internal injuries.

Two convicts at the New West-minster penitentiary were apprehended in the act of attempting a delivery of prisoners some weeks ago, they having themselves escaped from their cells, and have just now been formally arraigned and committed for trial for "being out of legal custody."

An eleven foot measure of coal has been struck by the men sinking a shaft at McLean's Crossing, one and a half miles from Extension. The company of course knew of the existence of coal thereabouts, but to open it at a depth of 283 feet with a working shaft is a large undertaking. The coal is high grade in quality.
