Court in Convicting Contractors Finds that Dominion Government Encourages the Bringing in of Foreigners

NO ORDER IN COUNCIL AUTHORIZES ACTION

Immigration Officials Regard Notice from Ottawa as Suspension of Law and Act Accordingly -

Convicting Grant Smith & Co., contractors of this city, of a breach of the Alien Labor act in encouraging the immigration from Seattle of John Thompson, and also ruling that Lilyman & Renard, employment agents of Seattle, were acting as the authorized agents of Grant Smith & Co., in securing men for work here, Magistrate Jay, in giving judgment in the police court yesterday forenoon in Rex. v. Grant Smith & Co. found that the Dominion government as represented by Mr. W. D. Scott, superintendent of immigration at Ottawa, was encouraging the bringing in of railroad laborers from the United States in contravention of the Alier

The taking of evidence in this case was concluded last week when Mr. A. J. Aikman appeared for the crown and Mr. E. V. Bodwell, K. C., for the defence. Mr. Jay's judgment handed down yesterday was as follows:

The charge is that on the 12th day of June, 1911, the accused, did knowingly, encourage one John Thompson, a citizen of the United States of America, to immigrate from the city of Seattle in the state of Washington, one of the United States of America, into the city of Victoria, in the province of British contract made previous to the importa-superintendent of Immigration.

It was proved that Lilyman & Renard are employment agents having an attle, and further that Grant Smith & Co., are contractors for a section of the Canadian Northern railroad, while Knowles & Thompson are their subcontractors, carrying on construction work at a camp about 22 miles from Victoria. It appeared from the evidence that John Thompson, who is a Norwegian by birth, but a naturalized citizen of the United States, in company with eight others, Norwegians and Swedes, went to the office of Lilyman & Renard on the 12th of June. where they were attracted by a notice to the effect that laborers were wanted for British Columbia. They each paid Lilyman $5 and received from him a ticket. The ticket handed to Thompson was produced, and is as follows: Deliver this ticket to the Employer, the authorities have accepted as a passport the evidence of documents that, under the terms of the Allen Labor Act should have excluded the immigrants producing them from admission to this country.

Evidence of law in force in the United States similar to this act and applying, to Canada, as required by Sec. 13 of this Act was given by production of the United States statutes at large of the 57th Congress, 1991 to 1993, Chapter 1912, Sec. 4.

The written consent of the Acting Attorney General, dated 26th July, was also produced in compilance with section 5 of the Act. Lilyman & Renard purchased their tickets for Victoria and on the same day put them on the steamer, and upon their arrival they were met by a man and taken to a hotel, and upon the following morning were driven out to Knowles & Thompson's camp, but upon their arrival, they were informed by Mr. Thompson that no day work men to that effect on the ticket produced and he told them that they were not required. The men then walked back

Objection is taken by counsel for the defence that the consent of the Acting Attorney General is not a sufficient compliance with the terms of the statute, but I think that the objection is answered by the recent decision of the appeal court, in Rex vs. Faulkner.

The accussed are convicted of a violation. Rex vs. Faulkner.

The accused are convicted of a violation of the Act and will forfeit the sum of $100 to be paid on or before the 5th instant, and in default of payment distress is to be levied to recover the said sum.

Council Committee to Look Into Financial Aspect of Road Preparatory to Arriving at a Settlement with Company

While last night's special meeting of the city council was called for the express purpose of discussing the tentative arrangement arrived at between the city of Victoria and the Victoria and Sidney Railway company as to what financial compensation the company shall give to the city in return for the latter's payment for the past eighteen and one-half years of the annual interest guaranteed of $9,000 upon the $300-000 bonds of the company, the session terminated just about where it began. It was finally decided that a special committee of the council, composed of Aldermen Langley, Moresby, H. M. Fullerton, with the city solicitor should go fully finto the matter and report back. Mr. McNell, solicitor of the Great Northern Company, was present and shortly addressed the meeting, declaring that there is no attempt being made to evade payment of what sum is justly due to the city.

The city solicitor, in a supplementary report to that given by him to the council at last Friday night's meeting, pointed out that for the years 1906-7-8 the operation of the road showed a profit over and above operating expenses of about $9,550, and for ten years since the Great Northern took over the operation of the road a net profit of $23,971 was shown. The city is called upon to pay the annual bond guarantee whenever the company's profits do not exceed operating expenses. The city has to date paid about $170,000 and now the company has made a proposition whereby the city will forego this amount, the company to renay the city whatever amount is found by an audit to have been earned over and above operating expenses and in addition the company is to give an undertaking that nothing further shall he paid by the city on account of the bond interest guarantee to fall due during the balance of the term, about six and one-half years, or approximately $57,000.

America, and provided also, that the immigrants are suited to railroad work and are in all other respects desirable, have sufficient money to carry them to the work for which they have been engaged, and definite employment to go to.

On the Sist October, 1911, this relaxation of the regulations will come to an end without further notice.

(Signed) W. D. SCOTT,

City Suicitor McDiarmia pointed out that the shares of the Victoria and Sidney Hall-road are owned by a Mr. Guthrie, an official of the Great Northern, but the latter convern does not own the Victoria and Sidney, and consequently the city cannot collect from the Great Northern which, however, is willing to the figurance, that ever, is willing to give its guarantee that the amounts as set forth above will be Q. Do you know the firm of Grant Smith & Co.? Smith & Co.?

A. No, I know nothing about them only what I saw on the papers.

Q. Have you seen these contracts?

A. Yes, I have seen one or two.

Q. How did you come to see these? What were the circumstances under which you had a glimpse of these contracts?

A. I think I had occasion to stop someone that I did not like the looks of and he produced one of these documents.

Q. And when he produced that, that was enough to let him in the country?

A. Yes, he went through—
Q. Did you have from time to time lists submitted to you by Lilyman Renard & Co., of Seattle, of men that they were going to send to you?

A. The lists came on the boat to us—Q. And would you look over it and see if they were the same men?

A. Yes, as far as possible. Railway and Ferry Company, against which the city has no claim and if the city saw fit to secure judgment against the Victoria fit to secure judgment against the Victoria and Sidney road and sell it, there would be no city terminals and for that reason it would be a hard matter to operate the road. While the proposition put forward by the Great Northern was not adequate recompense to the city, the point is that it is about all the city can look for.

Mayor Morley believed the Great Northern road would act fairly with the city which has been bolstering up the Victoria and Sidney for years during which the road was not on a paying basis. With business yearly increasing the mayor was sure the company would realize that the city should be met in a fair spirit and an arrangement could be made whereby the amount already expended by the city should be repaid by the company. Liberal, terms of repayment could be made so that no hardship should be incurred by the company.

Aldermen Bishop, Moresby and H. M. Fullerton suggested the appeintment of a committee to make a full investigation and report back.

Mr. McNeil addressed the council briefly. and Sidney road and sell Yes, as far as possible. There was a similar order to this report back.

Mr. McNeil addressed the council briefly, responsible for the amount paid out by the city, nor does it consider that the present that a committee of the council meeting with officials of the road could bring down ome proposition which could be discussed The above named committee was

SANTA BARBARA, Cal., Sept. 2.— The lumber schooner Comet, laden with 500,000 feet of lumber bound for San Pedro, struck on Richardson's Rock, even miles from San Miguel islands, Wednesday night, and then drifted ashore where it now lies a total wreck. Captain Borgenson reached Santa Barbara today from Santa Rosa island. He eturned tonight to complete an investigate as to whether there was any ope of salving the vessel. The crew of eight men are still on the ship having returned to it after taking to small boats early on Thursday and rowing to Santa Rosa island.
