MAGNETIC MEN WANTED.

Reformers are still busy discussing their leaders. Mr. Blake has declared that he does not wish to lead at Ottawa, that he hopes that Liberals will follow Mr. Laurier. The Mail says Sir Richard Cartwright is coming to live in Toronto, has purchased an interest in The Globe, and hints that he is anxious to supplant Mr. Laurier. Sir Richard hasn't the manners though he has the brains of a leader. Laurier has the manners but not the magnetism of a leader. What is wanted is a "magnetic man." Sir John is that kind of gentle man. You rub a piece of amber and it attracts or draws to itself other substances. It is magnetic. So a leader of politicians. He draws men to himself and holds them, keeps them. Himself electric he electrifies others. Sir John has only to come near thousands of Canadians and they at once feel the subtle effect. They hang on to him like needles on a lodestone. But political lodestones cannot impart their peculiar virtues to their lieutenants in the way that a natural lodestone magnetizes a bar of iron, and makes of it as good a magnet as the original. The subtle influence cannot be transfused. The Reformers are in need of a magnetic man like Sir John, and the Conservatives will need one when the old gentleman departs.

Oliver Mowat can hardly be called magnetic. Still he does not repel, as Reform leaders have been known to do. Alexander Mackenzie, Sir Richard, Mr. Blake, not only failed to attract but they were known to repel. Mr. Mowat had and has one great virtue: He was always approachable. That's the next best thing to being magnetic. In casting about for a successor to Mr. Mowat no magnetic man is to be seen. Pardee had a good deal of it. But Pardee's value was as the quiet assistant of a leader. He kept his leader and his party straight, and there isn't a day that Mr. Mowat does not regret his loss. Lots of men can be got to go in the Mowat Cabinet, but what can they do besides fill a portfolio? What can they do with men? Can they help to keep their party straight? Can they settle internal dissensions? Mr. Mowat finds himself getting old, ready to retire, no one to take his place, and able men to assist not to be had. Mr. Samuel Blake is more than clever enough, more than sarcastic enough, but he is not affable enough, and perhaps not approachable enough. He has any amount of manners as far as that goes. Ross, Gibson, Hardy have, none of them, the right grain. Mr. Meredith is becoming magnetic. Fakir Wiman is only bombastic.

How many people in this country remember that Mr. Gladstone once had a brother who in his day was perhaps the most noted man in Liverpool? His name was Robertson Gladstone, and of him it is said that he made it a strict practice to visit the fish market every day of his life and bargain with the fishwives. There are hundreds of stories of his fish-market experience, and many brilliant sallies of wit used to pass between him and the fishwives of the market. He was a terrible haggler about price, but he did it for fun, and it is well known that in the end he used to pay dear for his joke. Imagine an enormous man, over six feet, with broad shoulders and prominent features, surmounted by a huge, old-fashioned, half-low crowned farmers' hat. Add to the picture shabby, unfashionable clothes, and you have the late Robertson Gladstone. Every day he crawled down to Liverpool in a curious little shabby brougham with one horse, and it used to be a puzzle, like the fly in the amber, how ever such an immense man contrived to get in and out of so diminutive a vehicle. For all this he was a very rich man—much richer, it used to be thought, than his distinguished brother, the ex-Prime Minister. Robertson Gladstone was a powerful and slashing orator and doted on his brother. In fact, in 1868 he compared his "brother William" to Christ on account of the persecutions he had to endure over the Irish Church question. This comparison raised a terrible storm, which took some time to subside.

Short history of Louisiana: Ceded to Spain 1762, ceded back to France 1803, sold to United States 1803, admitted to the Union 1812, purchased by the Lottery Company 1890.

As cleaners-up of the city's filth the authorities can establish an alibi—they pass every alley by.

Mr. Shibley, the defeated candidate, says many things militated against his defeat.—Kingston Whig.

The short stories of Mr Webster would be "mighty interestin' readin'" for The Whig man these hot July days.

Gen. Middleton's opponents are ignorant of one fact, namely, that the late Major-General of the Canadian forces still has many warm friends throughout the country who think that he has been harshly treated. Generals sometimes, like politicians, often suffer at the hands of an ungrateful country.

Mr. Parnell has selected another Oxford man for one of his colleagues who is, like Knox and Harrison, an Irish Protestant connected with the landlord class. The North Donegal seat will be occupied by J. Rochefort Maguire, who, after he won a fellowship in All Souls' College, Oxford, about ten years ago, betook himself to South Africa, where, in connection with Mr. Cecil Rhodes, who has given $50,000 to the Irish Parliamentary party, he engaged in mining enterprises and became a millionaire. He is described as "a handsome, fair-faced, agreeable, popular and cultivated gentleman, who looks about 25, speaks with aristocratic deliberation and a touch of laziness, but who strikes you on better acquaintance (so say all his friends) as a very clever fellow, a very good fellow, and a fellow who does not know the nature of fear." He is the third Oxford man added to the Irish parliamentary force within a year. Curiously enough, Trinity College, the great Irish university has but a scant representation among the Irish members. Prof. Swift McNeill, member of Parliament for West Donegal, is the only Trinity man of note.

The laying of the new cable from Halifax to Bermuda is practically completed, and that popular winter resort will no longer be an isolated portion of the earth's surface. This fact will have a tendency to increase its popularity, though with cable tolls at 75 cents per word it is apparent that none but the wealthy can indulge in the luxury of sending elaborate messages to their friends at home.

The report that privateers are fitting out at Victoria for Behring Sea is exploded as a fiction of the "silly season" for news. Equally unsubstantial is the rumor that the British Pacific squadron has been instructed to interfere with the United States revenue cutters engaged in protecting the seal islands, or that the Canadian poachers will fight on their own account. The battle over this affair will be fought out on paper.

The statuary in the Detroit Museum of Art is to be rigged out in clothes, since the absence of drapery hitherto has shocked a number of the very good people of that town. This sort of thing is getting to be so common that it is probable we shall not have much need of works of art in the future. A clothing store dummy will answer the purpose of something to hang clothes upon just as well as marble, and come a great deal cheaper.

He Caught the Train.

Another man has died of heart disease, brought on by running to catch a train, which leads us to remark once more:

Keep cool; go slow; why should you run
To catch a train in view
When probably another one
Is running to catch you?

The college graduate is now looking about him for a job. It is the saddest period of his life.

In John S. Farmer's "Americanisms, Old and New," published in London, is a common word of street vernacular thus curiously defined:

Jag is also a slang term for an umbrella, possibly from that article being so constantly carried.

The source of Mr. Farmer's conjecture appears in this paragraph, which he appends to his definition:

He came in very late (after an unsuccessful effort to unlock the front door with his umbrella) through an unfastened coal hole in the sidewalk. Coming to himself toward daylight he found himself—spring overcoat, silk hat, jag and all—stretched out in the bath tub.—Albany Journal, 1888.

The jag could not be the coal hole, the front door or the daylight. The spring overcoat and the silk hat were accounted for. What else could it be but the umbrella?

Montreal Gazette: Rev. W.F. Wilson, in his sermon to the Toronto Orangemen on Sunday, advised them to give up their Twelfth of July cry of "To hell with the Pope!" The advice is very much in order, first because the Pope is not affected by the objurgation, and second because it embodies a very blasphemous and unchristian desire. It is fair to say, however, that there are Orangemen and Orangemen, and that the "To hell with the Pope" boys among them are more noisy than numerous.

JOSEPH BRANT'S GRANDSON

Tells the York Pioneers That the Indians Were the Original Pioneers.

"Revised significance of the initials U.E." was the title of a paper prepared by Dr. Scadding and read by Mr. W. B. Reid at the meeting of the York Pioneers at the Canadian Institute yesterday. The venerable Doctor introduced the subject of imperial federation as being particularly appropriate at the present time, as the hour was approaching when Canadians would be called upon, as were the earlier loyalists of the United States, to say whether they would consent to the dismemberment of the empire. He cited the federation of the provinces as but the preliminary steps of the grand confederation of all British possessions and urged the pioneers to familiarize themselves with the arguments on the question pro and con.

John Sero (Ojijatekha), grandson of Joseph Brant, addressed the meeting and embraced the opportunity of pointing out that the Indians were the real and original pioneers.

Thompson Porter and Christopher Gray were enrolled as members.

An Offer of Five Hundred Dollars.

There has been a great deal printed of late in the newspapers throughout the Dominion, regarding the seizure of cigars, derogatory to the Domestic Article, by creating the impression that consumers are being defrauded by having Domestic Cigars handed to them in Imported cigar boxes. While it may be, that a comparatively few unscrupulous dealers might be tempted to do so, it is an open question whether the consumer is a gainer or loser through such actions. If the cost in Havana of the majority of cigars imported into this country is taken as a criterion, we have no hesitation in stating that the consumer is the gainer. The majority of Ten Cent cigars imported from Havana cost originally from the manufacturers 1 7-10 of a cent to 2 cents, those generally sold at 15c., 2 for 25c., cost from 2½c. to 3c. Tobacco imported into Canada for manufacturing purposes is admitted free, Labor is from 25 to 50 per cent. cheaper, and some of the finest tobacco grown on the Island of Cuba can be purchased by anybody willing to pay the price; therefore we claim (as cigar manufacturers of 40 years' experience) that we can and do produce a much superior article at a lower figure than the Havana article can be sold in this country. The very fact of dealers being able to sell our home manufactured article as the Genuine Imported but verifies our statements, and proves conclusively that it is only prejudice that retards the sale of Genuine Domestic Havana Cigars.

We are willing to distribute amongst the charitable institutions of this city the sum of Five Hundred Dollars if our statement, regarding the cost of the majority of Havana Imported into this country, is more than stated by us. Now is the time for upholders of the Foreign Article to do good work for sweet charity's sake by disproving our statement. S. DAVIS & SONS.

The brightest flowers must fade, but young lives endangered by severe coughs and colds may be preserved by Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. Croup, whooping cough, bronchitis, in short all affections of the throat and lungs are relieved by this sterling preparation, which also remedies rheumatic pains, sores, bruises, piles, kidney difficulty, and is most economic.

The Civic Reform Committee.

The Civic Reform Committee, after a lapse of three months, summoned sufficient courage yesterday to meet once more. The chairman, Ald. E. A. Macdonald, was in his place, there being associated with him Ald. Gillespie, Lindsey, Maughan, Carlyle (St. Thos.), Leslie, Moses. Assessment Commissioner Maughan was examined as to the possibility of adopting Ald. Leslie's scheme to divide the city into nine wards running northerly from the Lake shore. Mr. Maughan believed that the matter could be easily arranged. The committee endorsed the idea.

Moses Had Asthma.

My husband had asthma for eight years with severe cough, and his lungs also were affected. He could neither rest, work, nor get relief from any medicine he tried. Some time ago we got Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam, and after taking six or eight bottles his cough is entirely cured, the asthma greatly relieved and his lungs greatly benefited. MRS. MOSES COUCH, Apsley, Ont.

LOCAL BASEBALL SITUATION.

TORONTO CANNOT BEAR THE ENTIRE BURDEN.

The Men Will Receive Their Pay To-day—McConnell on the Situation—The Manitoba Cricketers, Assisted by Rain, Draw With All Toronto—General Sporting News.

"No, Toronto cannot keep the League together herself, but she will be the last to go under," stated President McConnell to The World last night. Continuing, he said: "To-morrow is pay day and every man will be paid his full salary up to date, and of course if there are no clubs to make contests the players are at liberty to go."

Mr. McConnell admitted that the International had collapsed, but denied that there were no mourners in this city. He pointed out the enthusiasm manifested at the last game played here, which long hence will be a green spot in his own memory as well as in the memories of the many who were fortunate enough to see the game. He was sorry that the game had succumbed here. It was an advertisement to the city. "Why," said the genial president, "Hamilton would never have been heard of but for her ball club which patriotic citizens supported."

There is little doubt but that the quality of baseball furnished here was superior to that of at least two years back. Why? Because a capable and painstaking manager was at the helm. Charlie Maddock's selection by the directors in the spring to look after the club's affairs was an unusually fortunate one. They all favored him save one, who has since recognized his lack of judgment. Maddock was a favorite with every one. His ability has already been recognized, as rumors of the International's tottering have brought offers to him from a couple of outside clubs. Charlie feels extremely sorry at the turn of affairs, as he candidly believed that his nine would have won the pennant. They stand with the same number of games won as Detroit and two more lost.

Other International clubs made offers to Toronto to run a cheap league, but to this Mr. McConnell would not consent. President Hobbs of London wired Mr. McConnell yesterday that his team had dropped out.

The baseball grounds will be retained by Mr. McConnell for the benefit of athletic sports. Already the Capital Lacrosse Club have acquired it for practice on certain days. Local cricket clubs will make an endeavor to rent the splendid field for next season. The Toronto C. C. must leave Bloor-street in the fall and the Rosedales' hold on their grounds is very slim.

Racing in England.

LONDON, July 8.—Houldsworth's Orcieto won the race for the Portland Stakes at Leicester to-day. Lord Durham's Peter Flower was second, Blair's Reverend was third.

Gossip of the Turf.

The running race between Bass Viol of Toronto and Victor of Belleville, which was arranged to take place on the Belleville driving park this afternoon, has been declared off. Charles Phair, owner of the Toronto flyer, telegraphed to George Thomas, who is holding the stakes, that Bass Viol was lame and unable to start. He will pay his forfeit of $50. Mr. Curry, owner of Victor, was greatly disappointed. He was anxious to meet the Toronto horse. He will also meet Chandos of Trenton for any amount which the owner of the latter will name. A bet was made last night that Bass Viol and Victor would come together within a month.—Belleville Ontario.

M'LEAN'S CHASE.

How He Followed Kemp for Nearly Three Miles in the Big Race.

Australian papers to hand give particulars of the race between Peter Kemp and John McLean, for £200 aside and the championship of the world, over the far-famed course of the Parramatta River. When the rivals appeared on the water a hum of excitement pervaded the assembled spectators, and as the scullers paddled quietly to their positions they were heartily cheered by their friends. McLean having won the choice for stations, he rightly took the southern shore, thereby escaping the strong flood tide. Kemp lined up within two boats' lengths, and without any unnecessary delay a roar from the spectators denoted that they were off on their eventful journey. McLean got going first, dashing in 41 vigorous strokes to the minute, which caused his boat to slightly show in advance. Kemp, however, was equal to the occasion, and plied his sculls at 44 for the first 30 seconds, and got fairly alongside of his sturdy opponent. On they rowed for a couple of hundred yards amidst great excitement, the betting suddenly veering round till even money was wagered that the champion would be defeated. As the boats shot Uhr's Point Kemp had a perceptible lead, and crossing the bay to the mile point increased it to a length. McLean seemed to waver, and rowed out into the tide before reaching the beacon, which gave his opponent another half length to the good. Passing between the beacon and the shore the champion had two clear lengths lead, the mile having been rowed in the splendid time of 6 min. 16 sec. Kemp now gradually made across to the southern shore to escape the tide, McLean rowing straight in towards Putney Point, on approaching which he made a desperate spurt and succeeded in reducing the daylight between the boats to about three lengths. From this point Kemp more than held his own till passing Mortlake, where he increased his lead to four lengths and slowly but surely forged further ahead till the flagboat at The Brothers was passed. The time for the full course was 21 mins. 46 secs. for the winner, the loser being some seven or eight lengths away. McLean rowed a stubborn stern chase for nearly 3 miles.

At "Headquarters."

Mr. Fred Mossop is now fully installed at "Headquarters," and has gone to a good deal of trouble and expense in making it comfortable for his friends and patrons. "Headquarters," as its name indicates, will always be a popular Toronto resort. 246

MANITOBA'S LUCKY DRAW.

The Game with All Toronto Stopped by Rain in the Second Inning.

Rain prevented the completion of the All Toronto-Manitoba match on the Bloor-street grounds yesterday. Play was resumed at 1 o'clock, Prest and Page, the two not-outs, continuing. They completely collared the bowling of Cameron and Martin and a change was necessary. The former was clean bowled by Goldingham at 37 and Senkler got Page to give Saunders a catch after he had increased his score of 2 to 16. No other stand was made. The rain came down and the game was therefore a draw greatly in favor of Toronto. Campbell, Jukes and Tuckwell went out for ducks and Rokeby had 2 not out. There were 6 extras, making a total of 68. The bowling analysis for the second inning showed Senkler to superior advantage. He bowled 11.2 overs, had 5 maidens, 8 runs and took 3 wickets. Cameron's analysis was 18O, 5M, 5R, 2W; Martin's, 10O, 3M, 22R, 1W; Goldingham's, 18O, 6M, 17R, 1W. The score:

ALL TORONTO.

First inning....180

MANITOBA.

First inning....69
Second inning, for 8 wickets....68

THE BUFFALO FIGHT.

Connors Knocked Out by the Belfast Spider in Three Rounds.

BUFFALO, July 8.—The much talked of prize fight between Ike Weir, the Belfast Spider, and Prof. James Connors, the instructor of the Buffalo Athletic Club, came off this evening. No such crowd has ever before attended a pugilistic entertainment in this city. The fight was for a purse of $1750, of which $250 went to the loser. Two-ounce gloves were used. The fight only lasted three rounds. The first two were tame. In the third Weir landed a blow on Connors' jaw that knocked the professor flat. Connors did not rise until the 10 seconds were over. But Weir waived his claim. Connors advanced and was floored again and did not re-appear.

The Curling Convention To-Day.

The delegates to the Grand National Curling Convention will nearly all arrive in the city this morning although a few reached here last night. Prospect Park rink is a perfect bower of evergreens and flowers for the At Home there this evening. The visiting brithers will also be entertained by the Granite and Toronto curlers later in the week.

Spots of Sport.

The Manitoba cricketers play in Peterboro to-day and to-morrow.

After all it appears that the Toronto baseball management has not lost so much notwithstanding an adverse season.

The Germantown Cricket Club of Philadelphia has not lost a match this season and has won 26. Belmont has won 32 and lost 5.

One of the large shade trees in the cricket grounds was blown down yesterday afternoon. Several cricketers had just left their seats underneath when a crash came and the chairs were smashed to atoms.

The regular semi-weekly shoot for the McDowall gun will be held this afternoon at McDowall's grounds in Greenwoods-avenue. The committee having charge of affairs relating to the August shooting tournament will meet this evening at the rooms of the Toronto Gun Club.

An indignation meeting of citizens was held in Cornwall last night to protest against the alleged unfair reports of Saturday's lacrosse match that appeared in The Gazette, Star and Herald of Montreal and The Toronto Globe. The spirit of condemnation was unanimous. A resolution was passed expressing regret at the accident to Schoffield and wishing him a speedy recovery.

The Atlantics of Toronto went to Stouffville Monday to play the Stouffville Juniors and were defeated in a well-played game by 12 to 6. McCarty of the Stouffvilles struck out 17, while McMahon of the Atlantics struck out 13. The Atlantics beg to tender their thanks for the courteous treatment shown them by the Stouffville players during their short stay there.

Before the Colonel.

At the Police Court yesterday a young fellow named Haines, living at 136 Sackville-street, was fined $1 and costs for throwing stones at a fife and drum band parade. Frank Cox was committed for trial on a charge of stealing a vest, silver watch and several articles of jewelry from Louis Melon. Mary May was sent down for three days for snatching a 25 cent piece from little Ellen Henralty. Robert Hains was taxed $1 and costs or 10 days for ill-using a horse. James Lawlor went to jail for 30 days for hitting John Crowe with a stick of timber. Charles Ross was committed as a lunatic, and Rosie Henderson was fined $1 and costs or 30 days for using indecent language in King-street. Albert Trott, charged with committing an aggravated assault on George Hawkins; Archibald Armstrong, charged with assaulting his wife; James Henry, charged with stealing rabbits, and Louisa Barker, charged with destroying a bed of orange lilies belonging to John Patterson, 78 Agnes-street, were remanded.

From New York.

The demand last week for straw hats was so great that J. & J. Lugsdin found it necessary to replenish their stock by re-ordering several cases of the latest styles from New York.

These hats are a nobby lot, suitable for young men, and selected specially by Mr. Lugsdin en route for England. Make your choice from this consignment, and you will have the proper hat for the season at a moderate price.

Great bargains in all kinds of light felt hats and helmets for summer wear. Remember the No. is 101 on Yonge-street, east side. 136

Mr. Henry Graham, Wingham, writes: "I was in North Dakota last May and I took a bottle of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery with me, as I did not feel safe without it. While there a lady friend was suffering with Indigestion, Biliousness and Headache. I recommended the Vegetable Discovery to her and she tried it, and the result was that it did her so much good that I had to leave the balance of the bottle with her."

City Hall Small Talk.

The big money bylaw goes to the people Aug. 6.

The Dufferin-street wharf has been completed.

The order for the construction of the Melinda-street sewer has been issued.

The meeting of the Board of Works has been postponed until this afternoon.

Work in Symington-avenue and Melbourne-avenue sewers commences forthwith.

According to the special police returns the Toronto Street Railway Company last week carried 500,000 "fares."

WILL RESUME TO-DAY.

Why There Has Been No Work on the New Court House for Eight Days.

Work has been entirely suspended on the new Court House for the last eight days, but Architect Lennox expects to resume operations this morning. The cessation has been caused by a shortage of cement used in the concrete which is put in the trenches under the foundations. It is not a "shortage" either, but rather a case of poor cement. Mr. Lennox will not permit any cement to be used until it has stood the test prescribed by his little German testing machine. This cement comes principally from England, and of the last batch that was warehoused on the ground so many barrels were rejected that operations had to be suspended. Elliott & Sons are the contractors for the stone work and they have been busy hustling the agent of the English Cement Company to lay down a proper article. It takes 10 days to make a test of the cement, so that if a batch runs out this length of time must elapse before the test is finished by Mr. Lennox's process. The concrete for the trenches is composed of broken stone, cement and sand, and to have the composition of substantial strength and durability the cement must be of the best quality. The architect will permit of no slop stuff being accepted.

Some drawback is being experienced at the works because there is no clerk of works, or at least Ald. Gibbs' committee has refused so far to appoint such an official until Mr. Lennox hands in a name. The architect, on the contrary, wants to appoint the man himself and have his appointment ratified by the committee. This is the customary way of doing things. In such matters, it is said, the architect always appoints the clerk of works. Mr. Lennox thinks, too, that owing to the extensive nature of the Court House, which will cost, it is thought, fully two million before it is completed, that two clerks of work ought to be appointed, he paying one and the city paying the other. This, he thinks, would be a fair compromise.

The various contracts on the building extend over a period of six years, but it is not likely that the building will be out of the architect's hands for 10 years at least.

Up to date there has been expended on the new building $31,000, principally for material. The city pays 85 per cent. of the value of material as it is delivered on the ground.

It may be mentioned that during the eight days' suspension some excavating has been going on.

TO APPEAL TO THE A. G.

That's What the Police Court-Aldermanic Committee Proposes to Do.

The Police Court investigation committee met yesterday morning. Ald. Gillespie was in the chair in the absence of Ald. Saunders. There were also present Ald. Vokes and Lindsey.

Ald. Vokes: "The time has come for this committee to take a determined position in this matter, particularly when we consider the peculiar stand taken by Police Magistrate Denison. He had treated the council with contempt and we have no other recourse than to demand his superiors to take proper action in this connection."

Ald. Lindsey: "If we do that it will be only doing what he has dared us to do."

After further conversation the committee resolved unanimously to report as follows:

1. The magistrate refuses to carry out the plan adopted by the council of making returns to the city of fines and fees.

2. Did not provide an adequate staff to perform his duties during his recent absence in England, thereby violating the terms on which the Attorney-General gave him leave of absence, the result being that he put the city to a large and unnecessary expense, on this as well as on other occasions.

3. Has been absent from his post of duty, according to the report of the Police Court Clerk, for 258 days (exclusive of holidays and Sundays) during the last three years, with what permission we know not, but it was certainly not with the consent of this council—during which time the liberty of the subject has been not inconsiderably interfered with.

4. Refuses to treat with the sub-committee of the council as to the means of remedying any defects in the present system which need remedy.

They would therefore recommend that all reports, documents and correspondence relating to those matters be forwarded to the Attorney-General with the request that he appoint someone to look into the matters complained of, and either have the Magistrate put them right or appoint someone who will.

The Executive Committee meets on Friday, when it will be asked to confirm the above impeachment and send it on to council.

Mr. John Nunn Re-Elected Their President.

The annual meeting of Her Majesty's Army and Navy Veterans was held last night in Bathurst-street Hall, President John Nunn in the chair. Eleven veterans have been enrolled within a week, these being initiated last night: D. Hutchins, 63rd Regiment; H. Payne and L. Flood, 13th Hussars; George Simpson, 86th Royal County Downs. President Nunn was re-elected by acclamation, the members cheering the popular officer to the echo. This is Mr. Nunn's fourth term in the chair. Other officers elected are:

Vice-President—J. Brown, 75th Highlanders.

Corresponding Secretary—J. Martin, Royal Artillery.

Secretary-Treasurer—J. Parr, 7th Hussars.

Trustees—M. Macfarlane, Royal Artillery; J. Butler, Royal Marines; J. Smith, Royal Horse Artillery.

Inside Sentry—J. McClosky, 3d Buffs.

The president was surprised by H. Waterhouse, who in a neat speech made him a present of a valuable life size crayon portrait of himself. Mr. Nunn made a happy reply.

A resolution was unanimously adopted to admit the press to all future meetings.

In his Vegetable Pills Dr. Parmelee has given to the world the fruits of long scientific research in the whole realm of medical science, combined with new and valuable discoveries never before known to man. For Delicate and Debilitated Constitutions Parmelee's Pills act like a charm. Taken in small doses the effect is both a tonic and a stimulant, mildly exciting the secretions of the body, giving tone and vigor.

Bridge Church-Street Instead.

Judge Morgan continued taking evidence yesterday in the arbitration between the city and W. T. Kiely to determine the value of the land and damages for the proposed extension of Sherbourne-street. Mr. Kiely said that the route proposed turns him out of his house, and suggested a jog of 40 or 50 feet, and for the property thus taken the city could name its own price. As an alternative he said a bridge could be built at Church-street for half the money and answer the same purpose.

Parmelee's Pills possess the power of acting specifically upon the diseased organs, stimulating to action the dormant energies of the system, thereby removing disease. In fact so great is the power of this medicine to cleanse and purify that diseases of almost every name and nature are driven from the body." Mr. D. Carswell, Carswell P.O., Ont., writes: "I have tried Parmelee's Pills and find them an excellent medicine and one that will sell well."

At the Hotels.

R. Nagle, Ottawa, is at the Queen's.
J. W. Quinlan, Port Hope, is at the Palmer.
J. Parker Thomas, Belleville, is at the Rossin.
W. F. Romain, Oakville, is at the Walker.
D. J. Cameron, Montreal, is at the Palmer.
J. E. Seagram, Waterloo, is at the Rossin.
M. Brennan, Hamilton, is registered at the Walker.

M. Sheehan of Oscoda, Mich., writes: "I have used Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil on horses for different diseases and found it to be just as you recommended. It has done justice to me every time and is the best oil for horses I ever used."

Free and easy expectoration immediately relieves and frees the throat and lungs from viscid phlegm, and a medicine that promotes this is the best medicine to use for coughs, colds, inflammation of the lungs and all affections of the throat and chest. This is precisely what Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup is a specific for, and wherever used it has given unbounded satisfaction. Children like it because it is pleasant, adults like it because it relieves and cures the disease.

From Police Blotters.

Kate Zavin and Jane Perry are locked up at Headquarters charged with being frequenters of a disorderly house at 22½ Duncan-street.

The premises of H. Pearce, butcher, Yonge-street, were broken into yesterday afternoon and a quantity of hams stolen.

John Sheehan, 36 Lombard-street, is at Headquarters charged with stealing 25 lbs. old iron from W. A. Geddes, Queen's Wharf.

Maggie Garfield, Maud Loane and Josie Doyle are locked up at Agnes-street station on a charge of assaulting Kate Hamilton.

Sergeant Hales of No. 1 division has returned from a two months' visit to England. Mrs. Hales accompanied him.

Thomas Lassels of York township fell asleep in Jarvis-street while intoxicated yesterday and it is charged that while he lay on the sidewalk Mary Ann Pearce and Charles Gallagher, a boy and girl living at 143 and 145 Jarvis, rifled his pockets of a $10 bill. They were locked up.

THEIR JOINT REPLY.

What Christopher Robinson and Nicol Kingsmill Say About the City's Position on the Front.

The joint sub-committee of the Esplanade Special Committee and the Citizens' Association held a session yesterday. Ald. Boustead was in the chair, there being present Mayor Clarke, Ald. Gillespie, Shaw, Lucas, McDougall, City Engineer Jennings, City Solicitor Biggar, City Clerk Blevins and Mr. Edward Gurney. These accounts were presented and adopted:

John Bogart, C.E., expert engineering report	$750 00
W. T. Jennings, expert reports on Esplanade question	100 00
Christopher Robinson, Q.C., legal services	450 00

City Engineer Jennings laid on the table a plan of the proposed Don works in connection with the Canadian Pacific's entrance and based on the recently adopted agreement. It provided a separate track for the Belt Line, and an arrangement similar to that arrived at with the C. P. R. will have to be made with this company.

Then City Solicitor Biggar presented the joint opinion of Christopher Robinson, Q.C., and Nicol Kingsmill, Q.C., in the matter of several questions propounded to them in connection with the C.P.R. and the Toronto harbor as stated to them in a letter by City Solicitor Biggar some time ago.

Q. Has the city a right to place piling and filling in Toronto harbor outside the windmill line, and opposite its own property?—A. The city, we think, would have the right to place piling and filling outside the present windmill line and opposite its own property on complying with R.S. C., chap. 92. This would be on land which we may assume will be, but which has not yet been granted by the Crown, in pursuance of the agreement of 1888 and the order-in-council of that year. The title, therefore, still remains in the Crown, and according to Holman v. Green, 6 S. C.R., 707, under the jurisdiction of the Dominion Government, and except by their leave the navigation cannot be interfered with.

Q. Whether any lessee from the city has a right to construct piling and to do filling opposite his leasehold and outside of the old windmill line?—A. No lessee of the city can have any greater rights than those of the city.

Q. If not, can such an act on the part of the city's lessee be prevented or restrained by the city, having regard to the provisions of the agreement?—A. The city owns the land up to the old windmill line and any obstruction by their lessee could, but for the agreement of 1888, have been prevented by application to the Attorney-General of the Dominion, in whose name proceedings should be taken to restrain it. By that agreement, however, the city has expressly provided for the filling up of Lake-street at all events, and until it is decided that no patent shall issue we think it unlikely that the Attorney-General of the Dominion would take proceedings to prevent such filling, or that the city in their own right could interfere with effect.

Q. Is the extension of Bay-street south of the Esplanade, and between the Esplanade and the old windmill line, in your opinion a public highway?—A. We do not think the extension of Bay-street south of the Esplanade, and between the Esplanade and the old windmill line, can be regarded as in the strict sense a public highway, except in so far as it forms part of the harbor. It would seem to continue the property of the crown not being included in the patent of 1840, and though the right of the city to acquire it would probably be recognized we think it has not yet become their property, or a public street. If the city desire to have it established as a street they should obtain a patent for the land, or the consent of the Dominion authorities. The exact legal position of this and other slips in view of the patent of 1840, the Esplanade legislation and what has been done upon the ground is not easy to define, and more informat on than we have yet obtained may possibly be acquired. It may be that the public have a right of access to the water over these slips where they are now filled, but that would not necessarily imply that they are public highways, vested in the city, and such as they are bound to keep in repair.

Q. Is the extension of Lorne-street south of the Esplanade to the old windmill line a public highway?—A. We do not consider the extension of Lorne-street now a highway. The title to the land covered by this extension is, however, in the city, and it can be constituted a highway by proper steps taken under the Municipal Act.

Q. If not, what steps should the city take to constitute or establish these or either of them as public highways?—A. We have already answered this question in connection with the two previous questions.

Q. Should the city take any, and if any what, action to prevent the C.P.R. from proceeding with the filling and piling above referred to? If not what agreement should be required from the C.P.R. in order to protect the city's interest, and upon failure to obtain such an agreement what steps should the city take?—A. It would seem clear that the harbor is now practically closed as a harbor by filling within the area referred to in your letter, a portion of which filling has been done by others than the C.P.R., and that the work contemplated by the agreement of 1888, as far as regards the filling up of that portion, has gone too far to be stopped or removed with advantage to any interest. We think that the rights of the city will be sufficiently protected by an agreement that any filling done by the C.P.R. shall be without prejudice to the claims of the city, either to the extension of the streets as streets or to any part so filled on any other ground, and that they will do nothing on the areas covered by the extensions of the streets which they would not do and be authorized to do were they acknowledged to be legal highways.

C. ROBINSON,
NICOL KINGSMILL.

After some discussion the committee resolved to recommend council to instruct the Mayor to sign an agreement with the C.P.R. based on the last clause in the communication from Messrs. Robinson and Kingsmill. It was further resolved to have a bylaw drawn up making the extension of Lorne-street a public highway.

Jottings About Town.

The Toronto Christian Scientists held their Sunday school picnic to Island Park on Monday.

St. John's Presbyterian Sunday-school, numbering about 500, picnicked at Centre Island yesterday afternoon.

A C.P.R. excursion train left Union Station with a large party en route to the Northwest last night. The train consisted of eleven coaches and two engines.

W. J. Toe, 241 Yonge-street, was one of the excursionists at the picnic of the Elm-street Methodist Church to Queenston Heights yesterday, and while running ruptured a blood vessel and will be laid up a couple of weeks.

Albert S. Collins boasted in the Senate Hotel last night that he could thrash any person in the bar-room. A stranger who was present accepted the challenge and split Albert's nose open, and several stitches were required to close the "gaping orifice."

Look out for the Masonic excursion, Rehoboam Lodge, to Lake Island Park, Wilson, N.Y., per the new and handsomely furnished excursion steamer Eurydice to-morrow (Thursday) morning, leaving Geddes' wharf, Yonge-street, at 8 o'clock.

A neat souvenir of Toronto has just been issued by Mr. William Bryce, publisher, in the form of an album containing a bird's eye view of the city and photographic views of the colleges, churches and principal points of interest in the city. It will undoubtedly meet with a large sale.

The steamer Lakeside brought a big excursion over from Grimsby yesterday, and to-day will bring a large number of fruit-growers from St. Catharines and Louth. She will return to Grimsby to-day at 11½, returning to Toronto at 6½ p.m., and leaving for St. Catharines at 7 p.m. Saturday excursion as usual 2 p.m.

There are a few good berths vacant on the Polynesian July 23 and Parisian July 30 from Montreal. It is absolutely necessary to make an early application to secure same. The travel this season seems to be in excess of the past years, and those intending to cross the Atlantic should bestir themselves in order to obtain pleasant and comfortable accommodation.

The Police Commissioners decided yesterday to at once place a cover on No. 1 patrol wagon, and if the test is a success the remaining patrol wagons will also be covered. The board also decided to furnish to boys who sell newspapers only a distinct tag from those provided to lads who exercise the callings of bootblacks and newsboys.

KING-ST. (OPPOSITE POSTOFFICE)

Michigan Central R. R.

Fast time to Niagara Falls and Buffalo. The Michigan Central R.R. Co. has inaugurated a fast train service between Niagara-on-the-Lake and Buffalo, in connection with the Niagara Navigation Co.'s palace steamers Cibola and Chicora.

After leaving the old town of Niagara-on-the-Lake the route is continuous along the river bank, passing Paradise Grove and the Canadian Chautauqua Grounds, delightfully located on the west bank of the river; six miles beyond is Queenston Heights, where can be seen the famous "Brock Monument;" next stopping at the entrance of Wesley Park and the Canadian Free Park. On reaching Falls View all trains stop 5 to 10 minutes, affording passengers a most comprehensive and satisfactory view of the great cataract.

The time between Toronto and Buffalo has been reduced to four hours. Passengers would do well to remember this when purchasing tickets. Full information concerning this route can be obtained from A. F. Webster, 58 Yonge-street; Barlow Cumberland, 72 Yonge-street; or John G. Laven, Canadian passenger agent M.C.R.R., 85 York-street. 146136

Long Branch Cottagers

Will be catered for in groceries, fruits, etc., by the well-known firm of Mara & Co. of 280 Queen-street west, who, while establishing a branch store in the Park, will also wait upon the cottagers daily and make direct deliveries from their head store. Intending residents by dropping a post card to the firm stating their contemplated date of departure will be waited upon by their representative for their opening orders and have same duly delivered at their cottage. 135

A lady in Syracuse writes: "For about seven years before taking Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure I suffered from a complaint very prevalent with our sex. I was unable to walk any distance or stand on my feet for more than a few minutes at a time without feeling exhausted, but now I am thankful to say I can walk two miles without feeling the least inconvenience. For female complaints it has no equal."

Those Asphalt Streets.

What is being done towards asphalting Victoria-street? Are the property-owners alive to the value that it will give to that thoroughfare? If they are they ought to be moving. The sewer may have to be overhauled, gas and water mains, perhaps an electric light wire pipe put down, and all this ought to be finished before the asphalt is laid.

Then there are Melinda and Jordan-streets. When is the new pavement to be under way in these important thoroughfares?
