Death of Charles W. Webb, R. A.

In the second day of the chrysanthemum show at the Gardens was as auspicious as its predecessor. The doors were thrown open at 3 o'clock yesterday, and large was the crowd that gazed with a dimiration upon the beauties of the delicate tints of the chrysanthemums or the orchids, cyclamas, ferns, roses, violets, carnations, etc., which graced the show. There was a promenade concert in the evening.

Death of Charles W. Webb, B.A.

A telegram has just been received by Frank L. Webb, barrister, of this city, an nouncing, the sudden death of his brother Charles W. Webb, B.A., who has been a medical student, at Toronto University for two years past. The deceased was of a delicate constitution and had been applying himself too closely to his medical studies and was compelled to give up about a month ago. Death of Charles W. Webb, B.A.

Extraordinary! Deadly Strychnine Removed.

Was blood poisoned with strychnine 25 years ago? Many attempts by skilled physicians failed to arrest the ravages of the horrid life-destroyer, tone year ago tried St. Leon Mineral Water, took copious draughts, which cleared my system of the deadly poison, the outbrecking, etc. It has also raised me to a higher state of health, strength, and enjoyment of life than ever before experienced. No money consideration could equilits value to me. I prize St. Leon above everything. H. W. Lockwood, Westport, Ont.

Nelson Wegger, a Grand Trunk ya dsman, was engaged in this always dangerous occu was engaged in this always dangerous occupation yesterday afternoon, when he got his hand between the drawheads and had it badly smashed. He was assisted from near the Queen's wharf, where the accident took place, to the Union Station. Dr. Riordan was summoned and dressed the hand. He wanted Wegger to go to the hospital, but the latter preferred being taken to bis home. The doctor thinks that the hand can be saved.

What the Country Has Escaped. What the Country Has Escaped.

No one need fear choiera or any summer complaint, if they have a bottle of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial ready for use. It corrects all looseness of the bowels promptly and causes a healthy and natural action. This is a medicine adapted for the young and old, rich and poor, and is rapidly becoming the most popular medicine for cholera, dysentery, etc., in the market.
