There is in the possession of a retired English family, whose acquaintance a member of the Monitor staff made recently, one of the most valuable works of art in America. It is an oil painting, a masterpiece, by Rubens, the great artist of the eighteenth century, and its subject is "One of the Early Christian Martyrs."

This fine example of the work of an old master is 32 inches in height by 27 inches in width, inside of frame. It represents a stoutly-built Flemish woman about to be burned at the stake. One arm is raised above her head and fastened by a rope; the other holds a fan of reeds. The figure is half length and as a specimen of flesh painting and correct delineation of anatomy is as near the perfection of art as is within the capabilities of human genius. The spirit of the physical pain and the spiritual peace of the martyr.

The history of the painting will prove its The mistory of the painting will prove its and solved the first of the physical pain and the spiritual peace of the martyr.

The witness said that soon after he was at the wheel he heard a sound like a gurgle. He leaned over with one hand on the wheel and saw the mate and passenger going to the passenger's room. Continuing, he said, Charles Brown went below and got the canwas. The bodies were covered by Brown, Anderson and Hendricks.

"How did Brown handle the bodies?" asked Mr. Cook.

"Rough" the witness replied. Further the witness said Brown had a cap and blue woolen shirt. In the presence of the mate, he heard the steward (Spencer) ask what cuts were on the Captain. The mate replied he didn't know. Brown on the Sunday before the murder washed some undershirts, one a blue woolen shirt.

can be seeming almost to speak, at once, the physical pain and the spiritual peace of the martyr.

The history of the painting will prove its genuineness. It was the central figure in a large altar picture in an old cathedral and was cut out and concealed at the time when Napoleon I. overran the continent of Europe, as a precaution against his ruthless destruction. About thirty years ago it was discovered, in a very dirty condition, in England by a person who thought there might be merit beneath the dirt, but its real value was not discovered until it had been cleaned and restored. For his pains he now has one of the finest masterpieces in existence.

This picture can be purchased by any lover of art who can sufficiently appreciate its value, as the owner finds himself obliged to part with it. It may be seen by any such at any time. Full particulars are to be had at the office of the Moniton.

Appalling Disaster in China.

Kings, were the guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Palmer, quite recently.

Shanghai, Aug. 2.—The recent disastrous tidallwave along the coast of northern Japan is paralleled by a similar phenomenon on the coast of Haichau, the northeast of the province of Kiangsu, in which Shanghai is situated. The news of the disaster did not reach here until yesterday owing to the lack of facilities for communication with the part of the country devastared. On July 26th there suddenly appeared in the Yellow sea a was magnificent and everything passed off without a hitch.

The principal attraction on Tuesday was the professional single soull for a purse of $750 dollars which was won by J. J. Gaudaur. On the same evening the concert in the public gardens drew immense crowds.

Mr. Cotter began the cross-exa Shanghai, Aug. 2.—The recent disastrous and the reports of the people in the country back from the coast, the wave was five miles wide. Thousands of tons of water were thrown for miles inland, and everything in its path was swept away. Many villages were entirely destroyed and it is estimated that fully four thousand people perished. All the cattle were drowned and the rice fields were obliterated. It is expected that fields were obliterated. It is expected that the survivors will meet with a worse fate, than death by drowning, for with the de-struction of the rice fields famine will stare them in the face in the autumn. The Wholesale Unseating of M's.P. Halifax, August 2.-Protests have been filed against the election of every successful conservative candidate in Nova Scotia, excepting Borden of Halifax, and it is understood, papers for his case are being prepared. Three grit candidates have been protested against so far: Copp, of Digby; McLennan, Inverness, and Flint, Yarmouth.

Ottawa, Aug. 2.—Protests were filed in Toronto against the return of the two liberal members for Ottawa. Bribery and corruption is alleged. The return of Etienne, liberal, for Two Mountains, is also protested.

Montreal, Aug. 2.—By to morrow evening the elections in Beauharnois, L'Assomption, Two Mountains, Maskinonge, Three Rivers, Yamaska, St. Ann's, St. Lawrence, St. Antoine, Laval and perhaps others will be contested.

The Yarmouth Herald says that Leslie M. Thomas, of Blanch, Shelburne county, has invented and patented a clock which he claims will run 200 years without winding.

The weight falls only three quarters of an inch in a year. The clock will indicate the Express Plows Through an Excursion Train.

Atlantic City, N. J., July 30.—A railroad accident, horrible in its details and sickening in its results, occurred this evening just outside of this city, and as a result about 100 persons are either killed or injured.

The Reading railroad express which left Philadelphia at 5.40 o'clock this evening for Atlantic City crashed into a Pennsylvania railroad excursion train at the second signal tower about four miles out from here. The Pennsylvania train was returning to Bridgeton with a party of excursionists from that place, Millville and neighboring towns. It was loaded with passengers, and a rough estimate of the killed and injured at a late hour places the number at 100. The horsemen of Lunenburg county are CHARGED WITH TRIPLE MURDER. Bram and Brown Held for U.

I would like to call attention of the proper authorities, and the public generally, to the disgraceful state of affairs in and about the bridge on dark evenings, when some of the "youth" seem to take advantage of the darkness by trying to scare peoples' horses or play tricks on the persons driving. Only last Sunday night, there being no light in the bridge, some four or five boys stopped a team in the centre of the bridge by standing in front of the horse and shouting and behaving very bad generally. Such things are not as they should be. The best cure, I think, would be a good dose of horsewhip administered by the parents.

The names of the youthful desperadoes are well-known by the persons attacked, and the next time they attempt anything of that sort they may feel she lash there and then, or else their names will be handed in for prosecution the following day.

And here I would suggest that the lights be attended to. We pay our taxes for street lights and we are entitled to them. The one in the bridge, especially, being needed as much or more on Sunday night than on other nights, as there is generally more travelling.

Thanking you for the space in your valuable paper, I remain, yours,

"Do you know whether it was agreed between them?"
"No."
Lohece stated it was after 2.05 when he took charge of the wheel. Up to that hour he had heard nothing unusual to attract his attention and everybody was at his post of duty so far as he could observe.
The witness said that Bram said the second mate had gone to assault the captain's wife:

The witness said that Bram said the second mate had gone to assault the captain's wife; that the captain's wife; that the captain got the axe and killed his wife, but that the second mate, being a strong man, probably got the axe away from the captain and killed him and then killed himself and threw the axe on deck, and then went into the forecastle. The witness insisted that this was what Bram said.

The witness said there was talk of salvage when the crew got into port. Brown, he said changed his shirt between the time he left the wheel at 2 and 4 10 o'clock. Ban of the Charch.

REV. WALTER HANCOCK SHORN OF PRIESTLY GARE.

The Chicago Tribune says:—The ban of the Episcopal church of America has been laid upon the Rev. Walter Hancock, and his priestly garb has been taken from him. Bishop William E. McLaren has inhibited the young clergyman from further service in the pulpit in the United States, and it is taken that this inhibition extends also to the Dominion of Canada.

One official of the Chicago diocese said last night: There are but two causes for an order of inhibition—heresy and immorality. Mr. Hancock's fault was not heresy.

At the hearing the government placed on the witness stand only two witnesses, Monks, the passenger, and Lohece, a seaman. One witness was on the stand three hours, the other two hours. The defence offered no testimony, arguments witness. testimony; arguments were made and the decision given in short order. Bram, the defendant, appeared cool and collected all day. His calm matter-of-fact manner caused considerable comment among the spectators. There were no sensations at the hearing and the evidence adduced did not point out a motive.

UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT WILL BE IN FOR HEAVY COSTS.

Boston, Aug. 3.—Interest which is not confined to the water-front people is manifest in the return to this port of the barkentine Herbert Fuller, which was scheduled to sail to-day from Halifax. On arriving here the U. S. Marshal will put deputies on board to hold her until the trial of the members of her former crew on the charge of murdering Capt. Nash, his wife Laura, and Second Mate Bramberg on the high seas while the vessel was on the passage from Boston for Rosario. The government will have to pay the owners of the vessel demurrage for every day she is detained here, and in addition to this, they will have to reimburse the owners for the loss sustained on the present charter.
