

CHAPTER XI.

	PAGE
Van Buren's Neutrality Proclamation—Real Motives—Traditional Policy—£100 Reward for Mackenzie—He Addresses Large Public Meetings—Windsor Expe- dition.....	215

CHAPTER XII.

Removes to Rochester—Disorganized State of Refugees—Canadian Prisoners in England—Associations of Refugees.....	232
--	-----

CHAPTER XIII.

Trial and Conviction—Eighteen months' Imprisonment—Sickness—Death of his Mother—Visits her Death-bed by Stratagem—Pardon.....	243
--	-----

CHAPTER XIV.

Visit to Washington—Kidnapping Enterprize—Poverty—Denounces Frontier Movements—Actuary—New York Custom House— Tribune —New York Con- vention—Death of his daughter—Amnesty—Removes to Canada—Elected to As- sembly—Sickness and Death.....	269
--	-----

APPENDIX A.

Books read by Mackenzie between 1806 and 1819.....	303
--	-----

APPENDIX B.

Defence against Charge of Publishing Libels on the House.....	313
---	-----

APPENDIX C.

The Second Riding of York Election in 1836.....	326
---	-----

APPENDIX D.

The Declaration adopted and published in The Constitution , August, 1837.....	334
--	-----

APPENDIX E.

Draft of Constitution submitted to Convention for adoption.....	344
---	-----

APPENDIX F.

Appeal for INDEPENDENCE, printed in handbill form.....	359
--	-----

APPENDIX G.

Proclamation by the Provincial Government of Upper Canada.....	363
--	-----

APPENDIX H.

Montgomery's account of Escape from Fort Henry, C. W.....	369
---	-----

APPENDIX I.

Names of Persons Imprisoned for their participation in the Revolt, in U. C.	373
--	-----