This Business being adjusted, the Governor addressed the Nation as follows:

Brothers! We have now concluded the Business for which this Council Fire was kindled. Our Conferences have been public, so that every Person who chose might be a Witness, and we have spoken our Minds freely to each other. The Result is a Covenant between us; which we are happy to find from your Speech, is perfectly satisfactory to both Parties, and for their mutual Advantage. We hope it will be faithfully observed by our Great Council, as well as your Nation, and that it will endure forever. This Covenant is
