The jockey who rode Mr. Andrew Allan's horse Shira, which won the Montreal Hunt Stooplechase at Caledonia Springs, was Mr. Charles Sait, of Montreal, and who has ridden with great success some of the finest horses in England. He has only arrived in this country from home. His services have been engaged by Mr. Allan.

The Troy Times says that Erastus Corping owns the oldest piece of horse-flesh in the state—a mare forty-seven years old. She has been on the ferm ever since she was a filly, in 1826. Mr. Corning owns a dosen first-class horses, Palmer and Henry Clay being among the number. He owns the best Alderney bull in America, and some of the best Alderney cows and calves in the world
