

Every person who reads these lines will be kind enough to send a subscription, if not done already, and to induce friends to do the same. Is not the funny little paper curious enough to be worth a dollar a year? Beside a good work is done by helping it out.

Handwritten notes or scribbles, possibly bleed-through from the reverse side of the page. The text is illegible due to the style and density of the marks.