RIPANS

ONE GIVES RELIEF.
NO MATTER WHAT'S THE MATTER
ONE OF THEM WILL DO YOU GOOD.

Rev. Frederick R. Marvin, long-time pastor of the First Congregational Church of Great Barrington, Mass., and at one time a practicing physician, a graduate of the College of Physicians and Surgeons, New York, says of Ripans Tablets: "The formula has long been in favor with medical men, and the method of preparation in the present form is modern and a great convenience. I always keep a vial of the Tablets upon my dressing table, and use them with confidence whenever occasion arises. For a disturbed condition of the digestive organs I know of nothing so good, and for an 'all round' family remedy I do not believe there is anything better to be had."

HEALTH AND HOUSEHOLD HINTS.

When making biscuit, roll a portion of the dough into a cake about an inch thick, bake it, not too fast, and put it away to slice for toast. If the dough makes light biscuit, you will find the toast superior to any made of yeast bread. I slice mine, spread it with butter and brown it on one side. Occasionally I make cream or sugar toast, and have a delightful change. The latter is more delicious than cottage pudding, and is very nice to prepare when you wish to get breakfast quickly.

A noted Southern way of cooking chicken is as follows: Cut two chickens into large pieces; season them with pepper and salt, and put into a dripping pan. Peel four large tomatoes, cut them into pieces, and put them into the pan with one sliced onion and two green peppers chopped. Rub three tablespoonfuls of butter over the chickens, and pour over the whole two wineglasses of wine. Cover the pan and place it in a hot oven and bake until the vegetables are all cooked to pieces and the chicken is tender.

Apple Butter.—To forty gallons of sweet cider made from sound, sweet apples, use three bushels of select apples. The cider should be boiled down to one-third or a little less before putting in apples, which should be pared clean, all specks, bruises, seeds and seed cavities removed. They may be quartered or cut into eights if very large. If in a hurry the apples can be boiled in a little water before putting into the cider. Stirring should commence as soon as the fruit gets soft, and kept up carefully until done. At all times prevent the flames of fire striking the kettle above the line of contents. When boiled down to ten gallons it will be done, and it will be an article fit for a king. Put it in earthen vessels and when cold dip clear white paper in good whiskey or brandy, and lay it over the tops. In four months from making, if kept in a garret (the best place), the jars can be inverted on a floor or shelf without running out. Will keep for years, and if made with the right kind of apples, such as rainbow and smokehouse or bell-flower, will become smooth as cheese.

It's a slow process, usually—education, development, growth.

But it hasn't been so with Pearline. Pearline's success has been a wonder from the start. The more so when you consider the many imitations which claim to make washing easy. These things tend to confuse people. They're forced on the public by peddlers, prizes, substitution, etc. No doubt they're often thought to be the same as Pearline. We protest. Don't judge Pearline by the company it has to keep.

Cauliflower.—Soak the flower head down in salted water to drain out insects, if there be any. Rinse and put into boiling salted water. In ten minutes pour off this water; add fresh salted boiling water and boil from fifteen to twenty minutes longer. Make a drawn butter sauce thus: Rub together one tablespoonful of butter with one of flour until smooth. Season with one-quarter teaspoonful of white pepper and one-half teaspoonful of salt; add to this one cup of milk and stir until it thickens; add one tablespoonful of lemon juice. Lay the unbroken head of cauliflower in vegetable dish and turn over the sauce, which should be just thick enough to pour.

Sweet Tomato Pickle.—One peck of green tomatoes, ten small onions, whole spices, pepper, bay leaves, two teaspoonfuls of sugar, vinegar and salt. Peel tomatoes like an apple, leaving them whole and sprinkle with two-thirds of a cupful of salt. After standing six hours hang them in a bag to drain all night. Break up cinnamon and cloves and put into a thin muslin bag. Peel and chop the onions, sprinkling them with salt. When tomatoes and onions are well drained pack in layers in a jar, putting bits of bay leaf and small peppers on each layer. Cover with good vinegar, put in the spice bag and let stand nine days, having them well covered and pressed down by a cloth, plate and weight. When the time has passed boil the mixture as it is, adding the sugar. Seal in glass jars, after laying horse-radish slices and black mustard seed on top of the pickle.
