THE PAPAL ZOUAVES.

We learn from Rome that the chaplain of the Canadian Zouaves has brought with him some curious specimens of the North American Indians' handiwork, chiefly in the way of velvet worked with poarls in various devices, specimens of which have been offered to the Minister of War, and the colonel and officers of the Zouaves.

The privates have received, probably, more acceptible souvenirs from their countrymen, in the form of tobacco, cigars, maple sugar, and drinks of various strength and flavour. A magnificent stuffed beaver, the blazonic emblem of Canada, adorns the Zouaves' club room.

The recently arrived Canadian Volunteers have been received by the Pope with great affability, presented by the Lieutenant-Colonel of the Zouaves and General Do

Courten. The second anniversary of the battle of Mentana was celebrated on the 3rd instant by a grand dinner given by the officers of the brigade of Zouaves at their barracks in the Convent of San Silvestro. The Minister of War, the generals, commanders of corps, and staff officers of the Pontificial Army were invited, the number of guests amounting to 180. Among these were bishops from each of the countries which have furnished the corps of Zouaves with most volunteers.

The banquet was presided over, in the absence of Colonel Allet, by Lieutenant-Colonel de Charrette, who, at its conclusion. made an eloquent speech in French, comparing the battle of Mentana, for the severity of the struggle and the importance of its results, to the delivery of France from the invasion of the Saracens by Charles Martol; the relief of Vienna from the Turks by Sobieski; and the defeat of the Ottoman fleet by those of Pius V. and his allies in the waters of Lepanto. The Colonel's speech was received with great applause, and enthusias tic toasts were drunk to the Pope and the Pontificial Army.

A solemn funeral took place in the Church of the Gesu, for the souls of "soldiers who have died while fighting for the defence of the sacred rights of the Apostolic See of Rome."
