All Welcome.

C. L. S. C.

It is proposed to organize among our Young Men a branch of the "Chautauqua Literary and Scientific Circle" under the direction of Mr. L. C. Peake, Chairman of our Lecture Committee and who is also Secretary of the Ontario Branch of the C. L. S. C.

This organization aims to promote habits of reading and study in nature, art, science, and secular and sacred literature, in connection with the routine of daily life, (especially among those whose educational advantages have been limited), so as to secure to them the college student's general outlook upon the world and life, and to develop the habit of close, persistent thinking.

To reduce the expense to a minimum, we purpose securing a few sets of the books of study and place them in our Library so that every Young Man may have access to them. Friends desirous of joining the circle will please hand in their names to the Secretary at as early a date as possible. The study will commence Oct. 1st. On Tuesday Sept. 25th Mr. Peake will open our Winter course of Parlor Lectures by a lecture on "Chautauqua and its associations."

A MEETING FOR ENQUIRERS

IS HELD

EVERY MONDAY EVENING,

From 7.30 till 9,

In Parlor C (up stairs) Shaftesbury Hall.

"HAVE YOU GOT THE SHILLING?"

WHILE walking one day with a lady, at whose house I was staying on a visit, I met an old woman who was in great poverty, and had come some distance to seek a little assistance in money. Getting into conversation I pressed upon her that eternal life is the gift of God, and that if she would at once accept Christ, she would be saved. To illustrate this I took a shilling out of pocket, and holding it between my forefinger and thumb, I said, "I offer you this shilling as a free gift;" upon which she held out her open hand with the palm up, but did not take the shilling. After a few seconds, during which we stood opposite to each other, I said, "Have you got the shilling?"

She replied, "No, I have not."

"Well," I said "I offer it to you as a free gift: have you got it?"

"No said she, "I have not."

Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world.—Matt. xxv. 34.
