

Coronation Number

AUGUST, 1902

THE AUGUST NUMBER of THE CANADIAN MAGAZINE will be a Coronation number, with special features. A full description of the great event, by Mr. W. J. Thorold, a well-known Canadian writer living in London, will be the leading feature. The illustrations will be specially printed in two colours, and will include

TWO VIEWS OF WESTMINSTER ABBEY
THE SANCTUARY WHERE THE CEREMONY OCCURS
HENRY VII'S CHAPEL—THE ROBIN ROOM
THE HISTORICAL CORONATION CHAIR
FOUR PHOTOGRAPHS OF THE PROCESSIONS
THE BISHOPS OF CANTERBURY, YORK AND LONDON
LORD SALISBURY AND MR. CHAMBERLAIN
THE DUKE OF CONNAUGHT AND LORD ROBERTS
THE DUKE OF NORFOLK AND LORD KITCHENER
ROYAL GROUPS, ETC., ETC.

THE SEVEN EDWARDS

will be the title of an article by Mr. A. H. U. Colquhoun. This will be illustrated with portraits of these seven monarchs.

THE QUEENS OF EUROPE

is the title of a series of articles by Margaret Sherrington which will begin in the August number and run through three issues. Each sketch will be accompanied by a special photograph, three or four in each issue. The ten Queens are as follows:—Queen Alexandra, the Czarina, Queen Sophie of Sweden, the German Empress, the Queen of Roumania, the Queen of Belgium, Queen Olga of Greece, Queen Amelie of Portugal, Queen Helene of Italy, and Queen Wilhelmina of Holland. The writer of these articles is a talented Englishwoman, whose work is charmingly done without any violation of good taste.

OTHER FEATURES

will include an article on Lacrosse, several Short Stories and the usual Departments. The number will be a notable one in many ways.

A SPECIAL COVER

with the Royal Coat of Arms as the central feature of the design, will distinguish the issue.

THE CANADIAN MAGAZINE,

25c. a Number

63 Yonge Street, Toronto