

Christmas Number

The Christmas number of THE CANADIAN MAGAZINE will contain more than the usual number of pages, will be enclosed in a handsome cover, and will be better than any previous issue. The contents of this magnificent Canadian Souvenir will be as follows:

Four-Colour Emblematic Cover, by G. H. Loughridge.

Sandringham House, where the King and Queen spend Christmas, by Sarah A. Tooley. Illustrated from photographs.

The City of Toronto. A brief history. By Norman Patterson. Illustrated.

A Lake Huron Harbour by Moonlight. Two special photographs, reproduced in delicate colourings.

The Tariff Problem, by Professor W. J. Ashley, reviewed by J. M. McEvoy.

Chamberlain and Canada, a symposium by several leading Canadians.

Sir William Mulock, a character sketch by Franklin H. Gadsby.

The Closing Events in the War of 1812-13-14, by James Hannay, D.C.L. This will describe the Abandonment of Fort Erie, the Battle of Bladensburg, the Burning of Washington, and the Battle of New Orleans. Maps and Illustrations.

A Note of Spring, a story of city life by Eve Brodlique Summers. Illustrated with drawings by C. H. Warren.

The Turreted Hall, a Christmas story of English life by Justin H. McCarthy. Illustrated by H. T. Pyke.

A Pair of Gray Gloves, a story of journalistic life by Katherine Blake Coleman (Kit).

Two Kings, a Queen and a Jack, a Christmas story with scenes laid in British Columbia, by Harold Sands.

One of the Boys, a Christmas story by Virna Sheard, with drawings by J. E. McBurney.

The Pensionnaires, the excellent serial story by A. R. Carman, will reach its final chapters.

Christmas Books will receive special attention.

The other Departments will be seasonable and attractive.

THE CANADIAN MAGAZINE

TORONTO, CANADA

TO ANY ADDRESS IN GREAT BRITAIN, IRELAND AND MOST OF THE COLONIES THE SUBSCRIPTION PRICE IS TWO DOLLARS AND FIFTY CENTS A YEAR POSTPAID