

THE GRIP PRINTING AND PUBLISHING CO. OF TORONTO

have disposed of "The Educational Journal" to Prof. J. E. Wells, who has so long and ably edited it, and the next number will be issued under his management.

This will leave us free to devote more time to the other departments. This will apply especially in the case of the Engraving department, in which we are doing a large and rapidly increasing business. No expense has been spared in the past, nor will be in the future, to keep this Department fully abreast of the times. Improvements have been added as fast as their real value became evident, and we contemplate a further large expenditure this fall for a new electric lighting plant, made especially to our order. This when installed, will make us perfectly independent of the sun, and enable us to work night and day during the busy season. Samples of work recently done by us will be sent to anyone on application, and we shall be pleased to have you compare them with work done by any firm. We claim three things for the Grip Co. as engravers:

1st. Work Equal to Any.

2nd. Prices as Low, if not Lower than that quoted by any firm for GOOD work.

3rd. Promptness in Executing Orders.

We make all kinds of engravings on copper or zinc by the photo-engraving process, and have recently added wood engraving to the department. Our staff of artists includes first-class men on portraits, mechanical work, designs and illustrating, and enables us to turn out all work entrusted to us in a superior manner. Special attention is given to our half-tone engraving on copper as we make this "our strong point." Estimates will be given on application, and all desired information cheerfully furnished. We invite correspondence from all who require engravings of any kind, and believe that if given an opportunity, we can convince you that the Grip Co. is turning out work equal to any done in America.

As compared with the time and money spent to fit them for their position, and the ability they must possess. But many of them are able to Supplement Inadequate Incomes by accepting agencies which give remunerative employment for their leisure hours. Any one possessing the will and application can make money by representing the PROVIDENT SAVINGS LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY of New York. A teacher should be cautious as to the standing of the company for which he acts. The strong financial position and unimpeachable record of the Provident Savings Society fully justifies a teacher in recommending it. Prospectus will be sent to any teacher who wishes to increase his income and devote his time to a good and useful work.

Agents WANTED BY JOSIAH ALLEN'S WIFE. Agents WANTED

Over One Hundred Illustrations, by C. De Grimm.
"Josiah Allen's Wife is a privileged character. In fact there are few writers that are so sure of a generous and enthusiastic reception."—Northern Christian Advocate. "One does not tire of her writing."—Christian at Work, N. Y. "She is now witty, now pathetic, yet ever strikingly original."—New York Herald. "Her works are full of wit and humor, and yet are among the most logical, eloquent, pathetic, and instructive productions of our time."—Sen. Henry W. Blair. "The author displays a vivid imagination and a full acquaintance with human nature."—St. Louis Christian Advocate. "The keen sarcasm, cheerful wit, and cogent arguments of her books have convinced thousands of the folly of their ways. For wit can pierce where grave counsel fails."—Woman's Journal, Boston.
