

Mission Field.

FROM REPORT OF THE BOARD
OF MANAGERS OF D. & F.
MISSIONS OF THE P. E.
CHURCH IN THE U.S.

V. The reports of the Missionary Bishops may be commended to a wide perusal. Their tone is cheery and hopeful, in spite of hardships and straitnesses. It is a tonic to Churchmanship to note how, eminently in their lives, the Apostolic office means now just what it meant at first, apostolic administrations of love and care to the longings and needs of all men. Four new Missionary Bishops placed in four new fields this year! It is a glorious record, if, having placed them, we sustain them. That we shall do, please God. To sustain them is an honor. To stand by them and their brethren in love and prayer and sympathy and gifts is our best Church life. Upon one of them 50,000 souls in a throng have been flung for care. They have built and are building hamlets, towns, cities as in a day. As God may guide him, and, as we, under God's blessing, may help him he must visit them and their wonderful towns for apostolic help and ministrations. In the Foreign field two Bishops to the manner born have been appointed, and have gone forth promptly to duty. Not only do they have our confidence and plaudits, but our hearts and help are pledged them.

VI. The times are hard. So they are. Incomes have shrunk, are shrinking, it may be, are to shrink, so that multitudes of men and women, to whom it is a real to give to God and to His great cause of missions, find their ability to do so now stricken away. This is all true. But still, your committee remind themselves and you, we are of the Lord's host, set in the line and rank where He would have us. Under Him, then, we

"Bate not one jot
Of heart or hope but still bear up
And steer right onward."

Man's needs are the provoking of God's bounties. And many of the rich appreciate, thank God, that wealth is weighted with duties, is a trust rather than a possession. Hard times are here, and hard times for most of us mean hard lines. But missions are of the things of God, continuous and lasting, like the sunshine and the seasons. Let there be no thought or wish for starving spiritual life and growth. Nay, the more unstable and unsatisfying that material betterments seem, let the things of the spirit, like unselfishness, steadfastness, generosity, godlikeness, the more deepen and strengthen. God will put it into the hearts of some to double and redouble their gifts for missions. Hard times shall be the stormy rock of glory. Struck by God's inspiring love the waters of living refreshment for the divine work of missions shall gush out of them withal more abundantly than though furnished in the wilderness to our natural expectation by man's noisy windmills and laborious pumps.

A LESSON FOR HARD TIMES

It was a time of great distress and famine when the Prophet Malachi came to the people of Israel with the awful charge from the Almighty: "Ye have robbed Me; but ye say, Wherein have we robbed Thee? In tithes and offerings. Ye are cursed with a curse; for ye have robbed Me, even this whole nation. Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in Mine house, and prove Me now herewith, saith the Lord of Hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven and pour you out a blessing that there shall not be room enough to receive it."

The best move
you can make, no matter what you have to wash or clean, is to try Pearline. Don't try to get along without it. Housework will be harder, and it won't be so well done. The weekly wash will be a burden. Pearline lightens your labors. It cleans everything and injures nothing. Use it without soap and double the economy.

"Mr. Sadler's Commentary is decidedly one of the most unhackneyed and original of any we have. It will be found to give help where others quite fail to do so."—Guardian.

"Mr. Sadler's excellent Commentaries."—Saturday Review.

"It is far the best practical Commentary that we know, being plain-spoken, fearless, and definite, and containing matter very unlike the milk and water which is often served up in (so-called) practical Commentaries. . . . For solid Church reading it stands unrivalled."—Church Quarterly.

"Incomparably the best Commentary on the New Testament extant."

—Irish Ecclesiastical Gazette.

SERMON OUTLINES FOR THE CLERGY AND LAY PREACHERS

Arranged to accord with the Church's Year. 2nd Edition. Crown 8vo. 5s

"We meet here all the well-known characteristics of his writings. The style is straightforward and vigorous. There is never any doubt about his meaning. His remarks are always pointed, and the arrangement of his material is excellent."—Quarterly.

"We should think that it would be difficult to find anywhere such a real help for preachers as these Outlines afford. . . . Such depth of spiritual teaching is seldom to be found."—Rock
