ADDRESS IN MEDICINE.—CANADIAN MEDICAL ASSOCIATION.*

BY R. E. MCKECHNIE, M.D.

Mr. Chairman and Gentlemen,—In asking a member of the profession residing in the far West to deliver the address in medicine, I feel that a compliment has been paid, not so much to myself, as to the West. To demand that we, living so far away from the centres of learning, from the great teaching institutions of the East, should nevertheless be expected to keep ourselves abreast of the times and in touch with the latest discoveries, is surely expecting a great deal; and then to expect that one, living under such barren influences, should be able to give you an address equal to this occasion, containing some food for thought and pointing out the pathway of duty and practice, is to look still further for a miraculous manifestation. But the genius of the West is ever equal to all occasions. It has grown accustomed to the knowledge that the best wheat in the world grows in our North-West; that our forests can supply the hugest sticks of timber known to commerce; that our fisheries can supply the world with illimitable quantities of salmon, halibut and other
