The Dry Goods House

—OF—

John Murphy & Co.,

1781 and 1783 Notre Dame Street.

Is famed throughout the Dominion of Canada for the unrivalled Stock which it carries in every branch of the trade. Its prices are always low, and its counters are always crowded.

—:00:—

Here are a few of its mottos:

"Once a Customer Always a Customer."

"Buy for Cash and Save the Price of Credit—the Dearest Article in the Market."

"Value and Quality Combined."

—:00:—

It has become almost a proverb that what cannot be found at Murphy's is not worth finding.

—:00:—

JOHN MURPHY & Co. are offering great value in the undernoted goods at present, viz.:

Mantles, Jackets, Dolmans, Ulsters,

Boys' Suits,

Boys' Overcoats,

Children's Dresses.

FURS TO SUIT EVERYBODY,

All at less than Wholesale Prices.

—:00:—

You will find their Dress Goods Department the finest and most complete in the city. Great bargains can always be picked up in Fall and Winter dress materials. They have an exceptionally beautiful lot of Camel's Hair and Bedford Cords just now, as well as Tweeds and other Costume Cloths.

—:00:—

HOISERY AND UNDERWEAR

Of all kinds and classes is a special feature. Nowhere are you so well served. Nowhere can you purchase so much with so little money. Give them a trial if you require anything in Dry Goods. It is worth your while and you will never regret it.

Note the address:

JOHN MURPHY & Co.,
