

THE EDINBURGH TAILORS' LOCK-OUT.

The position of matters as regards the dispute between the operative tailors and their employers remains unchanged, the majority of the masters remaining firm in their determination not to accede to the terms proposed by the men, and the workmen continuing resolute in their intention to insist upon the conditions which they at first demanded.

Resolved, That while this conference recommends no surrender of our position, the lock-out branches be empowered to open up communications with their employers with the view of ending the dispute; but no final arrangement be come to without the consent of the N. E. C.

SETTLEMENT OF THE BUILDERS' DISPUTE.

On Friday afternoon, 25th ult., a general meeting of the members of the Central Association of Master Builders was held at 2 Westminster Chambers. Mr. B. Hannen occupied the chair, and there was a numerous attendance, all the leading London firms being represented.

On Friday night, 25th ult., a mass meeting of the operative masons was held at Wilcocke's Rooms, Westminster Bridgeroad. Mr. John Earle occupied the chair. Mr. Goodman, the delegate from Lucas's shop, handed in a copy of the resolutions agreed to by the employers, and the men agreed to accept the proposals as satisfactory.

On Saturday afternoon, 26th ult., another crowded meeting of unionist masons was held at Wilcocke's Rooms, when the chair was taken by Mr. Earle. The chairman stated that he regretted to have to inform them that the official resolution had not arrived.

discussion ensued, some of the speakers asserting that such a course would have a look of suspicion which would tend to aggravate the masters, and probably be the means of still involving them in a strike.
