

Emerson and Prescott

THE PELEE ISLAND VINEYARDS are situated upon Pelee Island, Lake Erie, the most southern portion of the Dominion of Canada. The Island is in the middle of Lake Erie, being fifteen miles south of the most southern point of the Canadian mainland. The Island, from its favourable location, is peculiarly adapted for the successful cultivation of the grape.

The first vineyard (Vin Villa), comprising forty acres, was established in 1866; the entire vineyards of the Island now show an acreage of two hundred acres. Messrs. J. S. Hamilton & Co., of Brantford, have acted as sale agents for the vineyards for the past twelve years, and made shipments of the choicest vintages of the Island vineyards daily to all parts of the Dominion. The fine quality of the Pelee Island wines has done much to redeem the character of Canadian wines. The prices have been reduced this season, so that their standard brands—Dry Catawba, Sweet Catawba, Isabella, St. Emilian, St. Augustine (a sacramental wine), and Claret—are placed at the following reasonable prices:—5 gallon lots, $1.50; 10 gallon lots, $1.40; 20 gallon lots, $1.30; 40 gallon lots, $1.25; F. O. B. at Brantford.

These wines can be obtained from the following reliable firms:—Berlin, William Metcalfe; Collingwood, Best & Nettleton; Hamilton, James Osborne & Son, N. D. Galbraith; Kingston, James Crawford; London, A. M. Smith & Co., Fitzgerald, Scandrett & Co., John Garvey, T. J. McDonough, Somerville, Cannon & Co., Dodd & Bro., Elliott Bros., John Scandrett, J. C. Treblecock; Montreal, F. Kingston, Mathieu & Bro.; Ottawa, Bate & Co., Kavanagh Bros., P. Paskerville & Bro.; Owen Sound, Parker & Co.; St. Catharines, R. Fitzgerald, F. Maguire; Port Colborne, D. Gibbons & Co.; Toronto, McCormick Bros., 431 Yonge Street. These firms will furnish these wines at the prices mentioned above, adding freight from Brantford. Catalogues or wines can be obtained from Messrs. J. S. Hamilton & Co., Sole Agents for the Pelee Island Vineyards, Brantford, Ontario.

The greedy grasp of monopoly is broken. The short-sighted policy of seeking $1.00 profit from each of 1,000 readers gives place to the more liberal plan of asking a few cents profit from each of a million readers, ($1.00 multiplied by 1,000 equals $1,000, but 2 cents multiplied by 1,000,000 equals $20,000). Surely the most brilliant products of American literary genius are wanted by the millions. The expiration of copyright enables me now to publish beautiful editions of some of the most famous writings of EMERSON, IRVING, PRESCOTT, and HAWTHORNE. I here describe two volumes which I offer as representative of their authors, and as specimens of new styles in book-making recently introduced by me.

In the highest civilization the book is still the highest delight. He who has once known its satisfactions is provided with a resource against calamity. Angels they are to us of entertainment, sympathy, and provocation, whose embalmed life is the highest feat of art.—EMERSON.

Life being very short and the quiet hours of it few, we ought to waste none of them in reading valueless books; and valuable books should, in a civilized country, be within the reach of everyone, printed in excellent form, for a just price.—JOHN RUSKIN.

Ideal EDITION is the name I have adopted for the new form and style in which I issue these and many other celebrated works. It is almost universally pronounced unique and beautiful, as neat and graceful as it is convenient, easy for the eye, perfect in form for hand-holding and equally well adapted for the library shelf. Description is inadequate. To be seen is to be appreciated.

If a book is worth reading, it is worth buying. No book is worth anything which is not worth much. We call ourselves a rich nation, and we are filthy and foolish enough to thumb each other's books out of circulating libraries!—JOHN RUSKIN.

Books that can be held in the hand and carried to the fireside, are the best, after all.—SAMUEL JOHNSON.
"Knowing that I loved my books, he furnished me, from my own library, with volumes that I prize above my dukedom."—SHAKESPEARE.

Nature and OTHER ADDRESSES is the volume I have chosen to represent Emerson. It is the work which most greatly contributed to his fame. It treats of: 1, NATURE; 2, COMMODITY; 3, BEAUTY, 4, LANGUAGE; 5, DISCIPLINE; 6, IDEALISM; 7, SPIRIT; 8, PROSPECTS; 9, THE METHOD OF NATURE; 10, LITERARY ETHICS. It is printed from Long Primer type, on fine heavy paper, and bound in fine cloth, beveled boards, gilt top, for the price of 40 cents; or, in half Morocco, marbled edges, 65 cents.

Prescott's MISCELLANIES best represent this author, in the estimation of many readers, and I therefore offer, in one volume, his biographical and critical essays on: 1, CHARLES BROCKDEN BROWN; 2, CERVANTES; 3, SIR WALTER SCOTT; 4, MOLIERE; 5, ITALIAN NARRATIVE POETRY. Intypography and binding this volume is uniform with the "Nature, Etc.," of Emerson. Fine cloth, beveled boards, gilt top, price 40 cents; half Morocco, marbled edges, 65 cents.

Great OFFER. As the most effective means of advertising these and numerous other standard and popular works which I publish, I offer, for a short time only, sample volumes of the two books described, as follows: For 25 Cents a copy of EMERSON'S "Nature, Etc.," in cloth, as described, will be sent post-paid. For 40 Cents a copy of PRESCOTT'S "Miscellanies," in half Morocco binding, as described, will be sent post-paid. This gives you the opportunity of securing a specimen of each author, and each style of binding, at only nominal cost, and they will be sent as specified, only, at the reduced price—if wanted otherwise, full price will be charged.

A HAY FEVER
NEW TREATMENT.

Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the living membrane of the nose and Eustachian tubes. Microscopic research has proved this to be a fact, and the result is that a simple remedy has been formulated whereby these diseases are permanently cured in from one to three simple applications made at home. A descriptive pamphlet is sent free on receipt of stamp by A. H. DIXON & SON, 303 1/2 King Street West, Toronto, Canada.
