

ARTICLE XI

This agreement will take effect as from the date hereinafter specified. It shall apply to the territories mentioned in Article I of the present agreement. It shall continue in force until a date to be agreed upon by the two Governments.

Done at Ottawa, this twenty-eighth day of June nineteen hundred and forty-eight.

Signed for and on behalf of the Government of Canada:

W. L. MACKENZIE KING
C. D. HOWE

Signed for and on behalf of the Government of New Zealand:
W. YASHI
R. M. FIRTH

ARTICLE IX

- The Government of Canada reserves the right to request:
- (a) the delivery, after the cessation of hostilities in any theatre of operations, of such material as may be required for relief, rehabilitation and reconstruction purposes, to another United Nation or international organization of automotive equipment, spare parts, tools, etc.;
  - (b) the transfer to Canadian forces serving outside Canada, in any theatre of operations, of vehicles, aircraft, ordnance or military equipment supplied under this agreement to the Government of New Zealand, if such war supplies are required for the use of such Canadian forces and are not required by the Government of New Zealand for its own operations; and
  - (c) the return to Canada after the war, if required in Canada for reconstruction purposes, of aircraft and automotive equipment supplied under this agreement which may still be in use, but which may have been damaged or destroyed by these operations, and when the identity of such Canadian equipment has been established as a result of proper arrangements or by other means, the Government of New Zealand may substitute equipment of a similar type.

The Government of New Zealand agrees to use its best endeavours to supply such material as may be required for relief, rehabilitation and reconstruction purposes, to another United Nation or international organization, in accordance with the Government of Canada.

ARTICLE X

The Government of Canada and New Zealand reaffirm their desire to develop and strengthen economic relations between them and to contribute to the economic recovery of the world. They believe that their joint efforts in this regard will be most effective if they are able to remove all barriers to the free movement of goods and services between them and to other countries. They therefore agree to work together to remove all such barriers and to promote the economic recovery of the world. They further agree to work together to promote the economic recovery of the world and to contribute to the economic recovery of the world.
