

advisory committee would become the nucleus for further action. It is assumed that the necessary special expertise to address the problem(s) can be found nationally.