

Government, the service of the third member on another commission or commissions unduly delays the work of the commission, either party may require that a new third member be appointed by agreement of the Government of the Allied Power and the Japanese Government.

ARTICLE IV

If the Japanese Government or the Government of the Allied Power fails to appoint a member within thirty days of the request referred to in Article II, or if the two Governments fail to agree on the appointment of a third member within ninety days of the request referred to in Article II, the Government which has already appointed a member in the first case, and either the Government of the Allied Power or the Japanese Government in the second case may request the President of the International Court of Justice to appoint such member or members. Any vacancy which may occur in the membership of a commission shall be filled in the manner provided in Articles II and III.

ARTICLE V

Each commission created under this Agreement shall determine its own procedure, adopting rules conforming to justice and equity.

ARTICLE VI

Each Government shall pay the remuneration of the member appointed by it. If the Japanese Government fails to appoint a member, it shall pay the remuneration of the member appointed on its behalf. The remuneration of the third member of each commission and the expenses of each commission shall be fixed by, and borne in equal shares by the Government of the Allied Power and the Japanese Government.

ARTICLE VII

The decision of the majority of the members of the commission shall be the decision of the commission, which shall be accepted as final and binding by the Government of the Allied Power and the Japanese Government.

ARTICLE VIII

This Agreement shall be open for signature by the government of any state which is a signatory to the Treaty of Peace. This Agreement shall come into force between the Government of an Allied Power and the Japanese Government upon the date of its signature by the Government of the Allied Power and the Japanese Government, or upon the date of the entry into force of the Treaty of Peace between the Allied Power whose Government is a signatory hereto and Japan, whichever is the later.

ARTICLE IX

This Agreement shall be deposited in the archives of the Government of the United States of America, which shall furnish each signatory government with a certify copy thereof.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the undersigned, having been duly authorized, sign this Agreement on behalf of their respective Governments on the dates appearing opposite their signature.

DONE at Washington this twelfth day of June, 1952, in the English, French, Spanish, and Japanese languages, all being equally authentic.
