

not be registered. It is, however, desirable to maintain a visitors' book in which transients may record their names and local addresses.

Evidence of Citizenship

12.05 It is necessary that a valid passport or satisfactory evidence of Canadian citizenship in lieu thereof be produced for examination by each applicant for registration.

Dual Nationals

12.06 Registration should not be refused to persons of dual nationality residing in the country of their second nationality, even though consular protection will not ordinarily be granted to them.

Annual Check

12.07 Registration should be kept up-to-date and for this purpose it will be necessary to make whatever form of annual check may be appropriate in the particular district. It should be suggested to all citizens upon registration, that they keep the Consulate advised of any changes in address and also that they confirm their registration annually.

Duplicate
Registration

12-08 Where the circumstances in any particular country, e.g., difficulty of communication, make it desirable, there is no objection to Canadian citizens registering in the nearest Commonwealth Consulate as well as the Canadian Consulate for that district.
