

- (c) in the case of a person sought for the imposition or enforcement of a sentence:
 - (i) a statement by a judicial, prosecuting or corrections official describing the conduct for which the person was convicted and attaching a copy of the document that records the conviction and, where applicable, the sentence of the person. This statement shall be certified by the judicial, prosecuting or corrections official to be accurate; and
 - (ii) in the case of a person sought for the enforcement of a sentence, if a portion of the sentence has already been served, a statement by a public official specifying the portion of the sentence which remains to be served;
- (d) in the case of a person convicted in his or her absence, the requirements relating to the submission of documents referred to in subparagraphs 1 (a) and (b) of this Article shall apply. The evidence summarized in the record of the case may also be certified by a judicial or prosecuting authority as having been admitted at the trial of the person sought. However, the requirements relating to the submission of documents referred to in subparagraphs 1 (a) and (c) shall apply if:
 - (i) the person sought failed to appear at his or her trial and it is established that the person was personally served with the charge, including a notice of the date and place of the trial, or otherwise had knowledge thereof in due time; or
 - (ii) the person sought failed to avail himself or herself of the rights to appeal and retrial and it is established that the person was personally served with the judgment rendered in the person's absence, or otherwise had knowledge thereof in due time.

2. All documents and copies of documents submitted in support of a request for extradition and appearing to have been certified or issued by a public official, including a judicial authority, a prosecutor or a corrections official of the Requesting State or made under his or her authority, shall be admitted in extradition proceedings in the Requested State without having to be taken under oath or solemn affirmation and without proof of the signature or of the official character of the person appearing to have signed or certified them.
