

SHERWOOD LETT, C.B.E., D.S.O., E.D., LL.D., Brigadier, was born in Iroquois, Ontario, August 1, 1895. He attended the University of British Columbia and Trinity College, Oxford. Brigadier Lett served in the First World War, 1914-19, with the Canadian Expeditionary Force in Canada, England, Belgium and France. In the Second World War, 1939-45, he was with the Canadian Army Overseas in England, and France. Brigadier Lett was wounded at Dieppe in 1942 and in Normandy in 1944. From May 1943 to May 1944, Brigadier Lett was Deputy Chief of the General Staff in Ottawa. Later, he commanded the 4th Canadian Infantry Brigade in the North Pacific Aleutian Islands. Brigadier Lett has been Honorary Colonel Commandant of the Royal Canadian Infantry Corps since 1949. Brigadier Lett was called to the Bar of British Columbia in 1922 and is now a partner in the firm of Davis, Hossie, Lett, Marshall and McLorg. He is a member of the Canadian Bar Association, past president of the Vancouver Bar Association and a Bencher of the British Columbia Law Society. Brigadier Lett is a past president of the Alumni Association of the University of British Columbia of which he is now the Chancellor. He is a director with several companies and on the Advisory Board (B.C.) of the Toronto General Trusts Corporation. He is married and has two daughters. His residence is in Vancouver, British Columbia.

- - - - -