

work and conclusions of groups like this one, and I will not hesitate to discuss frankly what share and what responsibility each bears in building a better world. You may rest assured that in this endeavour I will devote all my energy to improving all our programs in the mutual interest of Africa and Canada.

In concluding, I wish you every success in your meetings.
Thank you.