

Mr. Speaker: Order, please. The hon. member rises on a point of order but I remind him that this is the hon. member's maiden speech and according to the tradition of the house, he should not be interrupted.

Mr. Roy (Laval): My point of order, Mr. Speaker, deals with the definition of old political parties. I think that—

Mr. Speaker: Order, please. The hon. member for Villeneuve.

Mr. Tétrault: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I shall continue my remarks to try to bring solutions to the problem of unemployment in Canada, and I believe that the only solution, as I said a moment ago, is to tackle our monetary system. It is the source of all injustices in Canada.

The Bank of Canada is serving the whole population and I believe it would be wise on the part of the federal government to consider the advisability of using it to finance our works.

Mr. Speaker: It being 9.45 o'clock p.m., it is my duty, pursuant to section (9) of standing order 58, to interrupt these proceedings and forthwith put every question necessary to dispose of the proceeding concerning the motion now before the house.
