INCOME TAX—AMOUNT COLLECTED FROM INDIVIDUALS AND CORPORATIONS

Question No. 1,878—Mr. Caouette:

For each of the past six years, by province, and for Canada as a whole (a) what is the amount of federal income tax collected from individuals (b) what is the amount of federal income tax collected from corporations, as estimated on the basis of taxable income?

[Mr. Fortin.]

Return tabled.

Right Hon. J. G. Diefenbaker (Prince Albert): I rise to point out the delay in answering question 1,748, placed on the order paper on March 13, and having to do with Mr. Roger Duhamel. The answers may reveal that the government answers given to me earlier were not in accordance with the facts. But that is no excuse for delaying the answering of a question. It is obvious, whoever the responsible minister is, that apparently he is affronting parliament by failing to give an answer.
