

2. The degree of concentration of control within these corporations and the extent to which such monolithic concentration may affect the free expression of opinion and the emergence of new vehicles of opinion.

3. The relationship between the public service responsibilities of mass media and their function as corporate enterprises.

4. The advisability of encouraging the creation of a communications council made up of representatives from the mass media the purpose of which would be to develop and protect standards of public service, protection for the individual from any excesses of mass media, and the encouragement of a free expression of public opinion.

Mr. Kucherepa—On Monday next—The following proposed Resolution:—That, in the opinion of this House, the government should give early consideration to the advisability of appointing a Royal Commission to examine and make recommendations upon traffic accidents in Canada.

Mr. Benidickson—On Monday next—The following proposed Resolution:—That, in the opinion of this House, consideration should be given to the advisability of revising the Bank Act to bring Small Loan and Finance Companies within its scope to ensure that the entire credit system works fully in the public interest and safeguards the public against abuses of consumer credit.

Mr. Granger—On Monday next—The following proposed Resolution:—That, in the opinion of this House, the government should give early consideration to the advisability of providing increased financial assistance to the Atlantic Provinces for the completion of the Trans-Canada Highway; and special assistance for other key trunk highways in those provinces as a means of equalizing facilities for transportation between the Atlantic region and other parts of Canada.

Mr. Taylor—On Monday next—The following proposed Resolution:—That, in the opinion of this House, the government should give early consideration to the advisability of establishing a Canada sports council with the object of fostering and encouraging amateur sport in Canada, such council to have representatives from each of the Provinces of Canada.

Mr. Peters—On Monday next—The following proposed Resolution:—That, in the opinion of this House, the government should give consideration to the advisability of introducing a comprehensive system of National Health Insurance, more particularly to give consideration to the advisability of: (a) amending the Hospital Insurance and Diagnostic Services Act to provide benefits on behalf of patients in tuberculosis sanatoria and patients confined to mental institutions; (b) introducing legislation to provide medical, dental and optical insurance.

Mr. Michaud—On Monday next—The following proposed Resolution:—That, in the opinion of this House, the government should consider the advisability of establishing free trade between Canada and the Federation of the West Indies.