

October
Twenty-first 1921.

W. Sherwood Fox, Esq.,
Dean of College of Arts,
Western University,
London, Ont.

Dear Dean Fox:-

I thank you for your kindness in writing as you did on October 18th.

It was a great week for McGill and I feel that much good will result from it. I am very glad that you were able to come and am only sorry that I did not have an opportunity of meeting you in a more personal way than was my privilege.

I hope that some time in the future I may have an opportunity of visiting your university.

Most cordially reciprocating your good wishes, I am,

Ever yours faithfully,

Principal.