General Sir Arthur Currie, G.C.M.G.,
Montreal, Que.

My dear Sir Arthur:

On behalf of the Executive of the Ontario Branch, I send you our Good Wishes for the New Year.

We are in need of a little propaganda in Ontario with regard to the Fund, and it occurred to me that you might speak to the Canadian Club, or the Empire Club, here, sometime during the next three months, and incidentally tell them what the LAST POST FUND is doing. We have enough money but we need more friends. An address from you on some phase of the aftermath of the war might bring hom to our people in Ontario the necessity which still exists for taking care of our ex-service men. I find in going about that a lot of our people are inclined to forget the war except for the twenty-five cent piece given to a little girl on the street corner on Poppy Day. Unless we hear from authoritative sources that problems still exist, I am afraid interest will continue to decline.

Knowing your responsibility, I hesitate to impose this or any burden on you. However, we cannot forget that you were Corps Commander. If this suggestion is of any value, I shall be glad to arrange for your visit to Toronto, and will try to make the occasion worthy.

Yours sincerely,

JAC:C
