

OFFICE OF
THE MINISTER OF IMMIGRATION AND COLONIZATION
OTTAWA, CANADA.

August 26th,
1930.

Sir Arthur W. Currie,
Principal, McGill University,
Montreal, Que.

My dear Sir Arthur Currie,

Thanks indeed for your kind message of August 18th. I am sure with the offers of co-operation I have received, even in these difficult times, I shall succeed.

I am very glad to have your proffered assistance and am advising the Deputy Minister of Mines of your suggestion that the Department of Mining in McGill University will assist us should we desire it.

I will also take an early opportunity of communicating your kindness to the Prime Minister.

Yours very truly,
