

OTHER PLACES OF INTEREST

A NOOK IN THE DRAWING ROOM, PLACE VIGER HOTEL

Amongst the other places of attraction to the tourist are the Cathedral of St. James, an almost exact reproduction on a reduced scale of St. Peter's at Rome; the old parish church of Notre Dame, one of the largest edifices in America, which seats 15,000 people, and its big bell, "le gros Bourdon," one of the largest in the world; the Jesuits' Church and Notre Dame des Lourdes, famous for their magnificent frescoes; the curious old church of Our Lady of Bonsecours, dating from 1678, with its "Little Heaven" in the upper portion; the Chateau de Ramesay, once the home of the Governors of Canada, which contains a splendid collection of historical relics—the "Elgin Gallery," with rare historical portraits, the "Court Room" hung with battle scenes of the British Empire, the "Council Chamber," where Montcalm and other great rulers sat in state, the old vaults in one of which Franklin's press was set up, etc.; at Bonsecours market, facing the harbor, a glimpse is given of the primitive life of the habitant, especially interesting in the forenoon of market days—Tuesdays and Fridays. The visitor will also be interested in a visit to McGill University, founded in 1828, one of the foremost educational institutions of the world—a magnificently located group of buildings, which include the arts, medical, Macdonald engineering, chemistry and mining, physics, Redpath museum, university library and observatory—with a yearly attendance of over 1,000 students; Laval University, the chief French seat of learning, occupying amongst that nationality the same position as McGill amongst the English; the Royal Victoria, General and Hotel Dieu hospitals; the Art Association building with its rare collection
