Huerta. Neither the paymaster nor any one of the boat's crew was armed. Two of the men were in the boat when arcsit took place and were obliged to leave it and submit to be taken into custody, notwithstanding the fact that custody, notwithstanding the fact that the boat carried, both at her bow and at her stern, the flag of the United States. The officer who made the ar-rest was proceeding up one of the streets of the town with his prisoners when met by an officer of higher au-thority, who ordered him to return to the landing and await orders, and within an hour and a half from the time of the arrest orders were received it say that we do not desire to control in any degree the affairs of our sister from the commander of the Huerta forces at Tampico for the release of forces at Tampico for the release of Mexico is one of deep and genuine

Huerta's Regrets.

"The release was followed by apologies from the commander and later by an expression of regret by Gen. Huerta urged Huerta himself. Gen. Huerta urged the respective to exercise the good offices of friend-thin restrictly law obtained at the time. that martial law obtained at the time at Tampico; that orders had been issued that no one should be allowed to sued that no one should be allowed to land at the Iturbide bridge; and that our sallors had no right to land there. of the port. Series of Wrongs.
"The incident cannot be regarded as a trivial one, especially as two of the men arrested were taken from the boat itself—that is to say, from the terri-tory of the United States; but had it stood by itself, it might have been attributed to the ignorance or arrogance of a single officer. Unfortunately, it was not an isolated case. A series incidents have recently occurred which cannot but create the impression that the representatives of Gen. Huerta were willing to go out of their way to show disregard for the dignity and rights of this government, and felt perfectly safe in doing what they pleased, makin free to show in many ways their irritation and contempt.

"A few days after the incident at Tampico an orderly from the U. S. Steamship Minnesota War. steamship Minnesota was arrested at Vera Cruz while ashore in uniform to obtain his ship's mail and was time thrown into jail. An official de spatch from this government to its embassy at Mexico City was with-held by the authorities of the telegraphic service until peremptorily de-manded by our charge 'affaires in person. So far as I can learn, such wrongs and annoyances have been suf-fered to occur only against represen-tatives of the United States. I have heard of no complaints from other governments of similar treatment. Subsequent explanations and formal apologies did not and could not alter the popular impression, which it is possible it had been the object of the Huertista authorities to create, that the government of the United States was being singled out and might be singled out with impunity, for slights and affronts in retaliation for its refusal to recognize the pretensions of Gen. Huerta to be regarded as the constitutional provisional president of the republic of Mexico. Must Teach Huerta Lesson. "The manifest danger of such a situation was that such offences might grow from bad to worse until something happened of so gross and intolerable a sor; as to lead directly and inevitably to armed conflict. It was necessary that the apologies of Gen. Huerta and his representatives should so much further, that they should be such as to attract the attention of the whole population to their significance, and such as to impress upon Gen. Huerta himself the necessity of seeing to it that no further occasion for ex-planations and professed regrets should arise. I therefore felt it my WASHINGTON.
