THE BRADSTREET COMPANY gathers information that reflects the financial condition and the changing circumstances of every seeker of mercantile trade. Its business may be defined as of the merchant, by the merchant, for the merchant. In procuring, compiling and promulgating information, no effort is spared, and no reasonable expense considered too great, and the results may justify its claim as an authority on matters affecting commercial affairs and mercantile trade. Its offices and connections have been steadily extended, and it furnishes information concerning mercantile persons throughout the civilized world. Subscribers are based on the service furnished, and are available only by reputable wholesale, jobbing and manufacturing concerns, and by responsible and worthy financial, fiduciary and business corporations. Specific terms may be obtained by addressing the company at any of its offices. Correspondence invited.
