APPENDIX.

PAGE.

ieral.

ct of

ount

Jale.

' the

art,

ions

s of

, to 330,

tion

, to 30, ant-

ille

iey

ren's

gg, re-

Sth sq. n's to cy

ly 210

.... 192

.... 199

31 208

..... 111

..... 129

..... 131

..... 143

..... 189

.... 189

PAGE. Letter from Robert Hay, Esquire, Under Secretary of State, to J. Stuart, Esquire, 26th August, 1831, enclosing an Extract of a Letter from D. B. Viger, Esquire 217 Letter from J. Stuart, Esquire, to Robert Hay, Esquire, &c. in Answer to the last-mentioned Letter 218 Extract* from a Memorial from J. Stuart, Esquire, to the Right Hon. Lord Viscount Goderich, &c. 221 Correspondence between His Excellency Lord Aylmer and James Stuart, Esquire, on the Suspension of the latter from the office of Attorney General 227 Letter of His Excellency Lord Aylmer to Lord Viscount Goderich, 18th April, 1831 231 Extracts from the Correspondence annexed to the Appendix to the Memorial of J. Stuart, Esquire, to Lord Viscount Goderich 235 The two Addresses of the House of Assembly to His Excellency Lord Aylmer, praying him to suspend James Stuart, Esquire, from the office of Attorney General, with His Excellency's Answer thereto 241 Letter from Lieut. Col. Glegg, Secretary, &c. to James Stuart, Esquire, 28th March, 1831, informing him that His Excellency had been pleased to suspend him from his office of Attorney General, and stating His Translation of an Extract from the first Epistle of Cicero to his brother Quintus, respecting the conduct he should observe in his Administration of the Province of Asia 251 Opinion of N. F. Uniacke, Esquire, Attorney General, and G. Vanfelson, Esquire, Advocate General, 18th April, 1823, relative to the King's Posts 253

• As the Petition to the King, and the Memoir accompanying it, embraced much of the matter contained in the Memorial, an Extract only from this Document has been here published.

291