LEAFS SPLIT DOUBLE BILL WITH WILTSE'S WILD HERD

Hard Battling to Win First by One Run—Justin Weakened in Tenth and Bisons Captured the Second Fixture Three to One.

The Leafs failed to climb yesterday when they had the chance. The Baltimore Orioles had a tough tussle to get an even break with Newark. Two victories for Gibson's lads yesterday would have landed them on top of tie heap again. It was not to be.

The Buffalo Bisons charged into the Leafs in both heats. It was a tough argument to get the first game 3 to 2 with Jones having to use everything in his bag of tricks to get by. The second one looked easy with the Leafs out in front and running smoothly. The Bisons tied it up late and then Justin issued a walk in the tenth, supplied a wild pitch to help along the base-runner. The Herd dropped in a double and a single for two runs and the old game was gone. The final was 3 to 1.

Brother John Paul Jones can pat himself on the back that the goddess of luck has picked him out for her own. J. P.
J. did the mound duty for Gibson in the first game yesterday and the long post-game had a very large afternoon trying to keep the Buffalo Bisons from scoring.
The boys from across the border were very bad about breaking out with trouble in nearly every inning. The Leafs managed to stall them off and grab the right end of a 3 to 2 score.

On top of this the defense of the Toronto outfit was shaky in spots, and in very ticklish situations. McInnis took a notion to do some kicking and leaving.
Anderson stepped in with one wrong one and Sandberg slipped up once. These little things made it uncomfortable for the fans on a hot afternoon.

A double play pulled Jones out of trouble in the third. The Herd opened the third with a single, but Jones came in and the double play was made.
The Herd was lucky to get away with only one run against them. Donelson pitched to get Straut's high one. Ben-gough singled, but Keating lifted for Whiteman.

The Leafs came back with the equalizer in their half. After Holden skirted out, Andy straddled, and McInnis' two-corner rap hit him home. Sandy beat out one to short, but Jones fanned.
Gonzalez walked and Brock lifted right.
A double play again came in handy in the fifth for the Leafs. Brock walked and in the Toronto half another run was produced. Whitely opened with a single, and O'Neil sacrificed. Holden bounced a hit off the pitcher, and Anderson rolled to short, the return being too late to get into the play. The next two were easy.

The third run was put over in the seventh. O'Neil hit safely and Jones walked to third when Louie threw the ball to first on Holden's roller. Andy's infield out scored O'Neil.

The Bisons scored one in the ninth.
Andy booted Straut's effort, and a wild pitch advanced him. The next two popped out, but Keating supplied the needed hit for the run. The final was 3 to 2.

rivals, Peterboro, defeated the home team in a double-header, the first in a two-game series, seven to four. The victories played almost errorless ball, while Lindsay's fielding was not at times.
Cherrett's playing at short for Peterboro was a feature of the game. Scott had pitching honors in strike-outs and fielding, but had a hard game to win or lose.
