

Our Mr. Dineen sails next week for Europe on a buying tour covering all the leading fur centres. His plan and purpose is to place larger orders for fine skins than ever before in the history of the business and give the stere a firmer grip on the better class of trade.

These buying preparations, coupled with stocktaking, make us the more anxious to reduce stock on hand. You can judge the entire store by the way we're selling:

-Ermine Muffs at $55. reduced from $85. -Ermine Ties at $35.

reduced from $55. -Muskrat Coats at $35, reduced from $60.

Men's Coon Coats at $35, reduced from $50. -Ladies' Astrachan Jackets at $25, reduced from $40.

reductions are genuine and the Furs speak for themselves the minute you see them. We're thoroughly in earnest in wanting to turn goods into money quick. This is our clearing time, and you are welcome to a big saving on everything you buy here now.

certainly means something to you, for everybody who knows this house for its high-class goods and its exclusiveness in styles and patterns knows that from $2.00 to $3.50 is about the regular run of prices here.

Big selling is bound to break sizes, and it is just that that puts 25 dozen very fine starched bosom shirts in your way to-day that were $2.00 to 95 $3.00, clearing them at .95

And there are lots of other little lines of haberdashery marked propertionately low to clear them. Store closes Saturdays at one o'clock anuary and February.
