There was a heavy wind yesterday, though the gale had moderated. None of the lake steamers were incommoded, however.

Yesterday the large boats of the Toronto Ferry Co. arrived at Yongestreet, and the whole Island fleet is now in the harbor. The big double-enders, Mayflower and Primrose, are tied up west of the city dock with several of the smaller boats. All look like new and are in perfect order.

The negligence of the United States The Industrial School grant was cut authorities in leaving the Braddock's Point light unattended is the subject of some strong talk on the part of vessel owners. INFLAMMATORY RHEUMATISM—Mr. S. Ackerman, commercial traveler, Belleville, writes: "Some years ago I used Dr. Thomas Eclectric Oil for inflammatory rheumatism, and three bottles effected a complete cure. I was the whole of one summer unable to move without crutches, and every movement caused excruciating pains. I am now out on the road and exposed to all kinds of weather, but have never been troubled with rheumatism slace. I, however, keep a bottle of Dr. Thomas' Oil on hand, and I always recommend it to others, as it did so much for me."

There can be no question of the pre-eminence of this store in Wall Papers. We have made a record this year that has out-distanced anything of the past—we have out-distanced ourselves, which is saying a great deal. Whilst prices were never so low, and this is giving us large sales, we explain the volume of sales largely by the beauty of the papers-so much artist work has not been shown in any range of Wall Papers anywhere.
