STORM ECHOES

Nine Vessels Lost in the Blizzard at Gloucester, Mass.

City Island, N. Y., Nov. 28.—A small schooner is sunk just east of Baker's Bluff, L. I. She is close in shore and well out of the water at low tide, but fills at high tide.

NINE VESSELS LOST. Gloucester, Mass., Nov. 28.—Nine vessels were lost in the blizzard at this port, but nothing could be learned this morning as to the loss of life. It is believed that the crews of nearly all the craft escaped. In several instances no one was on board. Nearly all of the vessels lost were fishermen.

Boston, Nov. 28.—The management of the Portland Steamship Company announced at noon today that they had no information as to the whereabouts of the steamer Portland, which left the city on Saturday night for Portland. She had a fair-sized freight, and about 25 or 30 passengers.

Strong Resentment in Some Quarters to American Expansion.

Mme. Dreyfus Hears from Her Imprisoned Husband—The Picquet Case.

Paris, Nov. 28.—The two peace commissions were in separate sessions all this morning. The commissions met in joint session at 2 o'clock, and the Spanish commission immediately announced the acceptance of the American demands.

There is no denying the fact that the whole European continent will be BITTERLY RESENT

American acquisition of the Philippines. This sentiment is not confined to diplomats; but, especially here in Paris, it is the opinion constantly heard in the highest French society. It is known that a high official of the French foreign office said yesterday:

"The appearance of the Americans in eastern waters is a disturbing factor to the whole of Europe. Americans, as is well known, lack diplomatic manners, and will surely bring constant trouble to all of us."

WILLIAM STEAD'S STATEMENT. As to the general sentiment, Mr. Wm. Stead, who has just returned here from his tour of Europe, Americans, as is well known, lack diplomatic manners, and will surely bring constant trouble to all of us."
